THE IMPERIAL BALLET OF LONDON

MARCH 31..... 8:15

Civic Auditorium, Portland

THE IMPERIAL BALLET of London is a collaborative effort which promises a Portland premiere March 31 full of remarkable European talent unavailable to all but the seasoned world traveler.

Coming together for a three-week American tour under the artistic direction of Royal Ballet of London principal dancer and international star, Vyvyan Lorrayne, the Imperial Ballet will showcase leading stars from the Israel Ballet, the Royal Ballet of Covent Garden, the Scottish Ballet and others.

This company of sixteen dancers is obviously on the road to dance, period. Early in negotiations with representatives of the company, Evergreen Events was advised, "No champagne in the dressing rooms is necessary. Just a spot of tea."

Already the reviews are excellent: "... Vyvyan Lorrayne brought a new fluency and assurance to her dancing." "... the most successful assembly of imported dancers to grace the Civic stage in years." "We are not disappointed. The evening turns out to be a dazzling display of star quality and superb technique. Beautifully balanced."

Walpurgisnacht:
Choreography: Galina Samsova
(Ballet: Sadler's Wells and National Ballet of Canada)
Music: Gounod, ballet sequence from the opera Faust

Big City Summer:
Choreography: David Blistery
Music: Malcolm Arnold

Scottish Dances:
Choreography: David Blistery
Music: Malcolm Arnold

The Jew:
taken from Faure Requiem Opus 48
Choreography: Gary Trinder
Music: Gabriel Faure

TICKETS FOR THE IMPERIAL BALLET OF LONDON: Available through Evergreen and the following outlets: Civic Auditorium Box Office, Meier and Frank Downtown and Salem, Stevens and Son, Lloyd Center. $8.75, $10.75, $12.75, $14.75 (box).

HONI COLES AND THE COPASETICS

April 1..... 8:15 p.m.

Civic Auditorium, Portland

FROM NEW YORK City, still making tap dance history after five decades in the business, Honi Coles and members of the Copasetic Club will dazzle and delight the whole family. Featuring Leslie "Bubba" Gaines, Charles "Cookie" Cook, "Buster" Brown and guest star Brenda Bufalino... to live jazz. Like the Preservation Hall Jazz Band, the Copasetics are "originals."

In Eugene, Wednesday, March 30, 8 p.m. too: Hult Center for the Performing Arts. Tickets through Evergreen Events, U. of O., and Hult Center Box Office.

Legendary tap dancer Bill "Bojangles" Robinson used to say, "Everything is copasetic!" For 34 years a few of his best friends have been making sure things stay that way.

THE BEST IN THE BUSINESS... still making tap dance history...

CARMEN McRAE

April 2..... 8:15 p.m.

Civic Auditorium, Portland

"SHE MAKES lyrics live and breathe with meaning; she makes tragedies and celebrations of life out of every song. She's the greatest interpreter of ballads, and the greatest woman singer of jazz in our time."

—Ralph Gleason

After more than thirty years of international tours, awards and albums, she's hotter than ever.

Celebrate a legend in her own time with an exuberant welcome from the jazz capital of the Northwest.

Billie Holiday was the first one to record one of Carmen McRae's songs. For thirty years Miss McRae has dominated jazz polls, collected awards and earned worldwide acclaim.

... one of the greatest jazz singers of all time.
