Parkers Return Home

Carl and Audre Parker of Portland recently returned home from a concert tour, promoting their album "Let Love Come Near." They covered a distance of some 3,000 miles singing in the California cities of Fresno, San Diego, Altadena, Pittsburg, Vallejo, Richmond and also Phoenix, Arizona.

Some of the funds raised during the tour will be donated to People to People Ministries a non-profit organization of which Carl is President. The organization has planned summer activities for inner city youth of Portland.

People to People is in the process of developing a Community Center which will offer a variety of classes, counseling and health services to enhance better living.

This week the Parkers appeared on the Gary Randall show on Channel 6.

The Parkers' album is available at the following outlets: Adventist Book Center, Clackamas; Christian Supply Centers; Dove Music Stores; House of Sound Music; and Sound Alternative in Vancouver, Washington.
