Community Calendar

A support group to help women recover from problem drinking is expanding in the Portland-Vancouver area. Women for Sobriety, a national organization, is a viable alternative to Alcoholics Anonymous, organized by women and aimed at women for whom alcohol or drugs have caused problems. The recently organized Portland group meets Fridays 7-8:30 p.m. in Conference Room A, South Wing, Bess Kaiser Hospital, 5055 N. Greeley. Women willing to join the group are welcome any Friday evening. For info call moderator Billie Barnett (206) 573-2653, or the Alcoholics Treatment Program at the Kaiser Montana Medical Offices 249-3434. The Annual St. John's Community Carnival and Parade is scheduled for the first and second weeks of May (6-16). Again the parking lot at Cathedral Park will be closed while the ramp remains open. As before, alternate parking sites must be used by ramp users during that time. Fishermen who have successfully adapted to this short-term absence of parking encourage others to 1) come early; 2) bring a friend so that one can stay with the boat while the other parks; or 3) use a different ramp during May 6-16.

Assessment of drug and alcohol abuse problems in schools will be the focus of three public sessions planned by the Portland Public Schools' Alcohol and Drug Task Force on May 11, May 25 and June 8 in the auditorium of the Robert W. Blanchard Education Service Center, 501 N. Dixon St. Testimony from students, parents and the lay community will be taken on May 11 at 8 p.m. On May 25, public officials and leaders of community organizations have been invited to testify at 7 p.m. The final session June 8, also at 7 p.m., will feature comments from alcohol and drug treatment providers and professional youth workers. The task force will accept written testimony in lieu of, or in addition to, the oral presentations. Scheduling of testimony is being coordinated by Marilyn Richen of the school district community relations department, 249-2000, Ext. 330. Written testimony should be submitted to Marilyn Richen, Alcohol and Drug Task Force, Portland Public Schools, P.O. Box 3107, Portland OR 97208.

Jersey day at the Clackamas County fairgrounds will be May 14. This major county spring show is sponsored by the Clackamas County Jersey Cattle Club.
