Heat up with Cool'r

Cool'r is a group of five of the finest musicians around. Many of the members have professional credits with recording artists such as the Crusaders, Roy Ayers, The Dramatics, Wayne Henderson, Ronnie Laws, Michael Walden, George Benson, Billy Cobham and Harvey Mason. They will be performing on June 4, 1983, for 69 Productions at the Sheraton Airport. Tickets are available at the House of Sounds, Mrs. C's Wigs and Stevens and Son (Lloyd Center).

Nathaniel Phillips, leader of the group, states that Cool'r is the strongest most positive group he's ever played with, and is looking forward to their first performance in Portland. He hopes everyone will come out and support them in their debut.

No form of Pleasure is hotter than Cool'r!!!

With album plans already in the making, this ambitious five-piece promises to extend the tradition that Pleasure started in 1970. Led by Pleasure's founding members, Nathaniel Phillips and Bruce Carter, Cool'r also boasts Pleasure guitarist Douglas Lewis, Keyboardist Jeff Alviani and vocalist Andre Montague. Will Portland continue to ignore its world-class musicians?

"We want to make new musical statements through combining popular styles such as New Wave, Rock and progressive Rhythm and Blues," states leader Nathaniel Phillips. "Cool'r has all the necessary ingredients to be a superstar act," adds guitarist Doug Lewis.

Cool'r will be playing at the Rodeo on S.W. 2nd and Taylor on Mondays and Tuesdays, May 23rd & 24th, May 30th & 31st and June 6th & 7th.

They will also be appearing at the Last Hurrah on Sundays, June 5th and 19th.

Quarterflash will be at the Paramount Theater June 17, 1983 at 8:00 p.m. Along with their special guest TBA. Tickets are on sale now for $10.00 and $11.00. Pick up your tickets now at G.I.
