"Love's Labour's Lost"

This summer the Portland Actors Ensemble presents William Shakespeare's neglected comedy, "Love's Labour's Lost," directed by Keith Scales, in parks in and around Portland. "Love's Labour's Lost" is a courtly comedy of romance and wit. Four young lords take vows to forswear the company of women and spend their lives in study; 'til four beautiful ladies from France come to pay a visit...

Masques, dances, music, a host of colorful pedants, braggarts and rustics, and a play-within-a-play fill out the themes of love and deceit in a delightfully comic entertainment that builds to a gently ironic finale.

"Love's Labour's Lost" will play this weekend at Washington Park (Northwest of fountain) on Saturday, August 27th and Sunday, August 28th, both days at 3 p.m.

Happenings

Children's event at Saturday Market

Face-painting, juggling, mime, music, and hands-on craft workshops will be the fare in a "just-for-kids" center at Saturday Market on Sunday, August 28, 1983. Open from 11:30 to 4 p.m., the Children's Entertainment and Craft area will offer an opportunity for parents to leave their children for a short experience with wooden-toy building, magic, mime, music, and other craft workshops. Most performances are free; a small charge is requested for face-painting and other workshops. Scheduled are: Eric Slade, a magician who insists on audience participation; Animal Faces painted by Sheri Gairthier and Kaci Wilson; Juggling Workshop with Peter Surette; and Scott McKay with a mime performance and workshop.

Multiple sclerosis picnic and jazz

A live jazz concert featuring the Cathy Smith Group, Teri Williams Trio, Al Copeland Trio, Indigo, and Dionna Black will highlight a picnic for multiple sclerosis patients and families Saturday, August 27th, 10 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., at East Delta Park. Arts and crafts, food, and a beer garden are available at no admission charge. Call M.S. Society of Portland, 238-0162.

State Fair tour bus

A one-day bus trip to the Oregon State Fair is being offered Thursday, September 1, by the Park Bureau's Outdoor Recreation Services. The bus will start from the Northeast 17th and Multnomah parking lot near the Lloyd Center at 9 a.m., returning at 5 p.m. Riders will be able to pick and choose what they see and do at the fair.

The cost for this trip will be $10.25, payable through pre-registration with outdoor recreation. Checks to "City of Portland" are mailable to Outdoor Recreation, 426 NE 12th Avenue, Portland, 97232. Reservations are on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Addition information is available by calling Outdoor Recreation at 248-4018.

Summer into Fall extravaganza set

Join the Zodiac Virgo Club for an evening of entertainment to celebrate the ending of "Summer '83" and help sponsor a promising male model, Terry Burks, on his way to the European circuit. August 27th, 7 p.m. at the Travel Lodge Coliseum, 1441 NE Second Ave., $5.00 donation.

Former teacher appreciates reunion

Robert Ford, retired teacher who was recently honored by his former Elliot and Holiday School students with a reunion, took an opportunity to publicly thank those who presented and who attended the affair.

"The reunion was an event I shall remember the remaining years of my life. Although it is over, it seems like a mythical dream and I am constantly asking myself, 'Why me?'" Ford told the Observer.

"These were very fine students in so many ways which, I am sure, accounts for my success as one of their teachers."

The committee really worked hard to present the reunion and it was very successful, Ford said. He wishes to thank all of those who honored him.

AMATEUR HOUR CANCELLED

The Youth Amateur Hour sponsored by Broadway Hairweavers for Sunday, August 28, has been cancelled. It will be reset.
