

One day triumph over war and bloodshed . . .

The Nobel Peace Prize was presented to Martin Luther King on December 10, 1964.

Selma, Alabama, 1965: Marchers were savagely beaten after crossing the Pettis Bridge on their March from Selma to Montgomery. The march continued, culminating in a triumphant rally on the steps of the State Capitol.

the portland
trailblazers

PROUDLY SALUTE

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

We know through painful experience that freedom is never voluntarily given by the oppressor; it must be demanded by the oppressed.