Sheri Annette McAllister is contestant for Miss Oregon National Teenager Pageant.

Local girl enters pageant

Sheri Annette McAllister is a contestant for the Miss Oregon National Teenager Pageant which is being held on May 19 and 20, 1984, at the University of Portland. Sheri is the daughter of Carolyn McAllister and is a senior at Wilson High School. She is a member of New Hope Community Church.

While attending Wilson, Sheri has been active in basketball and track. During her senior year, she was the statistician for the boys Varsity Basketball Team. In addition to being a sports participant, Sheri has volunteered many hours in teaching a Bible study class for 4th and 5th graders. Also, she has assisted her mother (who is a volunteer for Project Linkage) in transporting the elderly to various appointments, cleaning their homes, preparing meals, and friendly visiting.

Sheri is no stranger to the political arena. While she was a 6th grader at Fernwood Middle School, she canvassed the Northeast area in a massive drive to register people to vote. She also participated in the Neil Goldschmidt campaign during his re-election for Mayor, and spent a summer doing volunteer work in his office.

Sheri enjoys cooking pastries. Her specialty is toffee nut bars. Music and "singing along with records," are a favorite pastime of hers which she says relaxes her after "shooting the hoop" with friends.

Sheri will be attending Western Business College after graduation. She is sponsored by minority businesses and many friends. Best of luck to you, Sheri!
