Skating Party

Bubbling Brown Sugar will be sponsoring a skating party on May 27th from 8 p.m. 'til 11 p.m. at the Portland Skate Center, 418 S.E. Main. The public is invited.

African Liberation Day

On May 26th, Portland will celebrate African Liberation Day. The theme will be "South Africa Will Be Free." It will be held at Irving Park (7th and Fremont). There will be a march to the park which will assemble at the King facility at 11 a.m. and begin at 12 noon. The program will begin at 1 p.m. and will feature speakers, dance and live music. The public is encouraged to participate in the march.

Jazz Concert to be held

On Sunday, June 3rd, there will be "Expressions of Jazz," a tribute to the late Sonny King. It will be held at the Northwest Service Center at 8 p.m. The event will feature the Oregon All Stars, Street Corner Singers, Youth Sound Creative Orchestra and a Portland Jam Session. For information, call 226-1605 or 287-6415.

The Grateful Dead is alive at KBOO

KBOO wants to let you know about an exciting live broadcast of the Grateful Dead and The Band on June 21st. We are featuring the two bands live, from Toronto Canada.

Paul Krassner and Ken Kesey will host this special on Thursday, June 21st, from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.

KBOO slates Metro Jazz

KBOO, 90.7 FM, Portland's only listener-supported, non-commercial community radio station, presents their 7th annual benefit jazz festival, Metro Jazz '84, Sunday, June 24th, 1984, at the Western Forestry Center, Miller Hall.

Two shows, 1-5 p.m. and 6-10 p.m., will feature such well-known jazz artists as Tom Grant, Ron Steen, Shirley Nanette, Jean Ronne, Carlton Jackson, Dan Perz, Gary Hobbs, Dan Balmer, Michael Bard, Rob Thomas, Bob James, Lee Wuthenow, the Chris Conrad Big Band, Ralph Black, Mel Brown, and more.

Tickets for a single show will cost $5 advance, $6 at the door; for both shows $9 advance, $11 at the door. Tickets will be available at Meier & Frank (all stores), Music Millennium, Budget Tapes & Records, Django Records, Park Avenue Records, and at the KBOO offices, 20 S.E. Eighth Ave.

Adults only. Hot links and ribs, as well as other menu selections from Geneva's will be available.

Thara Memory entertains Demos

Thara Memory and the Creative Jazz Ensemble will entertain Democrats at an after-the-primary dance and mixer this Saturday night (May 26) at the Norse Hall, 111 N.E. 11th Avenue, from 8:00 to midnight.

Senator Margie Hendriksen will preside over a brief "unity roast" of area candidates. The public is invited and a donation is requested.*

The event is organized by North and Northeast Portland Democrats and endorsed by the Multnomah County Democratic Central Committee. The Hart, Jackson and Mondale campaigns will participate, along with many local campaigns.

Tables may be reserved by both public and "special" interest organizations. For information, call one of the following numbers: 281-8126, 289-0065, 287-8463, or 226-7106.
