COLLEGE SENIORS/GRADUATES

We're looking for a few good college students and graduates who can fill the shoes of a Commissioned Officer of Marines. That's a pretty tall order.

Because it means being in charge. It means planning, managing, supervising. It means leading Marines, being responsible for their safety and welfare. It means using your education and gaining the kind of experience that leads to success in whatever you do. Your first command could easily put you in charge of 30 to 40 highly skilled men and women. And that kind of experience, along with the excellent pay and benefits, is something few civilian firms can offer.

If you think you're right for the job, call the Marine Corps Officer Selection Station at (503) 221-3016. Call collect and refer to this ad.
