

ENTER THE PORTLAND OBSERVER'S ANNUAL GOODYEAR BLIMP RIDE DRAWING FOR KIDS

Entries must be received by 4 p.m.,
Monday, June 11th at the Observer!

Warner Wong

CITY OF PORTLAND, OREGON

Portland Development Commission

Northeast Portland's economic viability is enhanced by the expertise and dedication of Warner Kaia Wong, Northeast Target Area Project Coordinator for the Portland Development Commission.

Warner coordinates activities related to the planning and implementation of major projects which include government agencies, citizen groups, private consultants and developers, to ensure effective and efficient completion of project activities.

As an instructor at Portland State University's business department, Warner teaches students management, marketing, advertising and business entrepreneurship.

Warner holds both a Masters in Business Administration degree in marketing from the graduate school of business and a Bachelor of Science from the University of Oregon.

Prior to his work for the Portland Development Commission, Warner worked as a staff assistant for River

East Progress, Inc., a non-profit certified development corporation.

Warner owned an independent educational business, Step Ahead, Inc., from 1973 to 1982, which included publishing, consulting and retail sales. His business grew in excess of 400 percent during a 10-year period.

He has also served as a lieutenant in the United States Army and as a member of the Alumni Board of Directors of the University of Oregon Graduate School of Business.