Run Away for a Day

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, running now through August 5th, brings Portland audiences two-and-one-half hours of absorbing action, suspense, excitement, daring and hilarity at the Memorial Coliseum.

This year's all-new Edition features a galaxy of Circus stars including: Miguel Vazquez, the only person ever to complete the quadruple somersault on the flying trapeze; American newcomer Wade Burck facing the fury of rare white tigers; The Survivors, the most daring aerial quartet in the world; The King Charles Troupe, those unicycling basketball wizards celebrating 16 years with The Greatest Show On Earth; and multitudes of hilarious clowns and glamorous dancing showgirls.

The Axel Gautier family is featured in this year's rootin' tootin' elephant production entitled "Elephants—Country Style." Six-thousand-pound mammoth ballerinas, 21 strong, prance and dance to popular country-western tunes in a modern-day choreographic miracle.

Tickets for the Greatest Show On Earth, priced at $6.00, $7.50 and $8.50, with a $2.00 discount for children under 12 at selected performances, are available at the Memorial Coliseum Box Office, G.I. Joe Stores and Meier & Frank. For additional ticket information, call (503) 238-INFO. For group sales information, call (503) 235-8771.

Portland's Police Bureau offers Sexual Assault Prevention program in August at the following locations: Downtown-Mondays, August 6, 13, & 20, from 6:30 - 9:30 p.m., at the Justice Center, 1111 S.W. 2nd, 14th Fl; and S.E.-Tuesdays, August 7, 14, & 21, from 6:30 - 9:30 p.m., at the Portland Mennonite Church, 1312 S.E. 35th (in basement). Persons registering for the 9-hour classes must be able to attend all 3 sessions scheduled. Classes are for women and girls aged 13 and up. Call 796-3126 to register.

Summer Reading Club party with OHNO and CARROT the clowns. Wednesday, August 8th, 2:00 p.m. at the Albina branch of the Multnomah County Library, 3605 N.E. 15th, 287-7147.

Northwest Indian Art. Bring your whole family to this fascinating program led by Eva Rickles, Wednesday, August 8th, 2:00 p.m. at the North Portland branch of the Multnomah County Library, 512 N. Killingsworth, 284-5622.

Hiroshima: Holocaust and Hope, Sunday, August 5, 1984, from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m., at the Terry Shrunken Park. Event will feature music, and poetry and include a silent walk to Waterfront Park and a vigil. Terry Shrunken Park is located on SW 3rd, between SW Jefferson and Madison Streets. The Portland Freeze Coalition, 222-9362, is sponsoring the commemoration.

Free entertainment at 8:00 p.m. in the Rose Garden amphitheater continues through August 13th. The Portland Bureau of Parks and Recreation presents the Clan Macleay Pipe Band August 6th.
