

Try island living: it's COOL!

The next time you want a backyard or front-porch perfect cooler that will impress everyone you serve but take little time out of your busy day, try this extravagant tropical treat.

When the sun cools down at day's end, it's easy to bring the flavor of the islands right to your doorstep. What gives this cooler its Caribbean flare is its unique blend of lemonade drink mix, pineapple juice, cream of coconut and vodka or rum (optional). Chill in the refrigerator and serve over crushed ice for a refreshing "island" experience. It's great when you're winding down at the end of the day or as a perfect party starter for summertime entertaining.

Another tropical cooler that's just as quick and refreshing is Orangy Sauce. It takes just minutes to prepare and makes ice cream a special treat. A great topping to have on hand when unexpected friends drop in, it's easy to whip up two or three batches at time.

Quick, cool and sure to please—that's our recipe for the "island" experience.

CARIBBEAN COOLER

About 1 cup lemonade drink mix
1-1/4 cups water
2 cups unsweetened pineapple juice
1/2 cup cream of coconut
1/4 cup vodka or rum (optional)
Crushed ice

Combine drink mix and water in nonmetal container; stir until dissolved. Add pineapple juice, cream of coconut and vodka. Chill and serve over crushed ice. Makes about 6 cups of 12 servings.

ORANGY SAUCE

1/4 cup orange beverage crystals
1 cup granulated or firmly packed brown sugar
1/2 cup water

Combine beverage crystals, sugar and water in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat and boil gently 5 minutes. Cool. Serve over ice cream. Makes 1 cup.

When the sun cools down at day's end, it's easy to bring the flavor of the islands right to your backyard or front porch. Caribbean Cooler—quick, cool and sure to please.

Health scholarships for women

Women 25 and older seeking assistance for studies in the health-care field now have a new source of financial aid.

The establishment of a Scholarship Program for Women in the Health Professions has just been announced by the Business and Professional Women's Foundation.

The program will be funded with an annual grant of $50,000 in each of the next three years by the New York Life Foundation. To qualify, applicants must be 25 years of age and older and be enrolled in vocational or academic programs of study which will enable them to improve their chances for advancement, train for a new career, or enter/re-enter the job market in the health care field.

The scholarships will range from $250 to $1,000 and can be used for tuition, books and education-related expenses such as child care.

To obtain additional information and an application, write to: New York Life Foundation Scholarship, Business and Professional Women's Foundation, 2012 Massachusetts Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

The Savings Are Great at Larry Willson's Convenient Food Mart.

Maxi-choice, Mini-hassle.

We're not a super-market.
We're not a mini-market.
We're a just right market.

We're just the right size to offer you just about everything you need and everything you want. More brands, more sizes, more types of items — from canned goods to fresh produce — from dairy items to household items — from lunch meats to dinner rolls.

And, because of our "just right" size, you find just what you need and just what you want quickly and easily. And, get checked out the very same way. Isn't that just what you need and just what you want? Sure it is.

The first choice. Not the last resort.

We're much bigger than most little stores, and that means more choices for you. Chances are, you'll find just what you're looking for. The brands you want. In the sizes you want. We even have fresh produce. So when you have a small shopping list, come to your Convenient Food Mart store first.

Down to earth. Not sky high.

Lots of "open all night" neighborhood stores shoot for the moon when they set prices. At Convenient Food Mart stores, we make an extra effort to keep our prices reasonable. And that keeps our customers coming back.

In and out. Not standing about.

Our stores are well organized, our aisles well marked. So you'll find just what you're looking for quickly and easily. And checking out is a snap. No hassles. No long lines.

Just what you want.
