The 3-D Band will be appearing Thursday at Geneva's Lounge (4228 N. Williams); The Brasserie (626 S.W. Park) will feature the Ron Steen Trio on Friday and Saturday; and you can listen to Dennis Springer Quartet with Linda Hornbuckle at Fathers (320 S.W. Oak) Thursday thru Saturday. Also, catch Sheila and the Boogiemens Thursday thru Saturday at the White Eagle (836 N. Russell).

Free park concerts

Saturday, August 25th, Robert Bolden Community Unity Picnic will be held in Peninsula Park and will feature live music by the Plus Tax Band, the 3-D Band and Street Music, along with Disco by the Chaz, Rapping, Break-dancing and more. There will be games and races for the kids and a whole lot of fun. We encourage the community to come out and unite together for the affair. Community Unity Day is sponsored by the Black United Front, Entertainment provided by B.E.A.N.

Sunday, August 26th, the APDA Rhythm Section will be playing Jazz and Ragtime music at Peninsula Park, beginning at 5:30 until 7:00 p.m., sponsored by the Bureau of Parks.

Miss Tan Pageant

The 19th annual Miss Tan Scholarship Pageant with Gene Diamond, Cora Smith and Anise Hall, will be presented at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, September 2nd, at the Portland Art Museum. Also on the program will be a gospel musical with the Portlandaires and more; plus special guest Henry Chambe. $5 donation, tickets available at House of Sound Records.

Gala grand opening slated

The Gingerbread Bookhouse, the Portland metro area's first multicultural children's bookstore and professional art gallery, opens its doors in a gala grand opening Friday, August 24th, at 6 p.m., 3117 N.E. Union across from Union Square.

The fabulous "Street Corner Singers", the Northwest's most accomplished a cappella group, and Ralph Black, undoubtedly Portland's top male vocalist, will perform an array of children songs and ballads.

The Gingerbread Bookhouse staff will provide complimentary hors d'oeuvres and Ponzi Vineyards will supply the vino.

Take this opportunity to support the beginning of a new cultural foundation for the Portland area.

Mickey Rooney stars in the vaudeville inspired musical comedy "Sugar Babies", now through September 1st at the Civic Auditorium.

Koko Taylor to play Portland

KBOO (Community Radio 90.7) brings the hot Chicago blues sounds of Koko Taylor and her Blues Machine to Portland. On Friday, August 31st, at 9 p.m., KBOO celebrates their Sweet Sixteenth Birthday with a party and dance at the Lung Fung Dragon Room.

The New York Times calls Koko Taylor "the most exciting and impassioned of female blues singers." Koko Taylor has performed with such established blues stars as Buddy Guy, Junior Wells, Muddy Waters and Howlin' Wolf.

Opening for Koko Taylor will be the Street Corner Singers, a local a cappella group. Advance tickets for the KBOO Sweet Sixteen Birthday Party are now available at Music Millennium, 3158 E. Burnside; Django's, 1111 S.W. Stark; Woman's Place Bookstore, 2349 S.E. Ankeny; and House of Sound Records, 3634 N. Williams. Prices are $6 in advance and $7 at the door.

Michael (the Rocket) Lockett entertains a crowd of hundreds, Sunday at Peninsula Park. Visions, one of Portland's hottest (R&B funk) Bands presented a variety of original and top-40 tunes.
