Weekend of jazz

This weekend you can listen to a few of Portland's finest jazz artists. Names and locations as follows: The Calvin Walker Band at Fathers (309 SW 3rd) Thurs. - Sat.; the Mel Brown Trio/Shirley Nanett at the Hobbit (39th & Holgate) Fri., Sat., and Mon.; Mary Reynolds every Saturday in September at Digger O'Dell's (532 SE Grand); Marianne Mayfield Trio with Lee Wothenow on Fri. & Sat. at the Village Jazz (500 SW 1st, Lake Oswego); the Robbie Robinson Quartet Fri. & Sat. at the Jazz Quarry (1111 SW Jefferson); and the Ron Steen Trio Fri. & Sat. at the Brasserie (626 SW Park).

Suggestions?

Now that the summer is over and we await a long winter, it is time to start planning indoor events. B.E.A.N. is interested in knowing the kind of thing you would like to see or hear that you feel will help keep the community and the city united and growing together. As stated before, Portland is fast becoming an entertainment headquarters, but the support has to come from you, the public. That is why we call for your input. If you have any suggestion, please write to Joe (Bean) Keller, Entertainment Editor, Portland Observer, 2201 N. Killingsworth 97217.

PROGRAM

Weight Watchers International, Inc. 1984 Owner of the Weight Watchers Trademark

Chazz - the mobile disco man

Charles Tureaud, better known as The Chazz, has been supplying disco and other forms of entertainment around the city of Portland for over 10 years. Once owner of the Chazz Disco in the '70s, he has always tried to give the under-21 audience a place to gather and enjoy themselves. Chazz has a special interest in the younger, up-in-coming generation of people and feels that we, as adults, should take the time to work with and understand them. The Chazz currently works as a mechanic for Tri-Met and in his spare time, would like to supply disco music for your listening pleasure. Contact 281-1351. (Photo: Richard J. Brown)
