City Council candidates forum

The public is invited to a candidates forum sponsored by the Portland Chapter of the Oregon Women's Political Caucus in the Great Hall of Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1624 N.E. Hancock on Wednesday, October 17, 6 to 8 p.m. Seven candidates for the City Council seat vacated by Charles Jordan and five candidates for the County Commission seat vacated by Gladys McCoy have been invited to speak, followed by questions from the audience. Candidates appearing at the forum have a background of support for feminist issues important to the Caucus. Following the public forum, the Caucus will hold a meeting for members only to decide endorsements for the City and County races.
