Soul of the City

The Community Entertainment and Education Network would like to take this opportunity to seek your support for The Soul of the City 3.

This year's presentation of The Soul of the City will be held on December 1, 1984 at the usual place: the Grand Ballroom of the Masonic temple, 1119 S.W. Park Ave.

The Dance/Concert will take the opportunity to introduce three new up and coming groups to Portland, in keeping with its efforts to expose and emphasize the vast amount of talent here in the Portland area.

"Street Music," a band that's destined to rhythmically upset Portland, will be this year's featured artists, along with four dynamic soul sisters, "The Strawberry Gamblers." Also featured are Tom Cheeks and the Hy-techs for your listening and dancing pleasure, and other surprise attractions.

The Soul of the City 3, December 1, 1984 at the Grand Ballroom of the Masonic temple, 1119 S.W. Park Ave. — All ages are invited, with a lounge area for the 21 and over crowds. Tickets are an affordable $6.00 in advance, and $8.00 at the door. Tickets are at all Bass ticket outlets, and also Music Millennium, the House of Sound and The Ginger-Bread Bookhouse, on Union Ave., and of course Stevens & Son at the Lloyd Center.

Portland lights up

With the event one week away, organizers of the "Silver Bells Tree-Lighting" November 23 on Pioneer Courthouse Square have announced a rough, approximate time schedule for the evening's entertainment:

6:00 - Prelude, Youthsound Choir

7:00 - Fanfare, Brass Ensemble, Portland Youth Philharmonic

7:10 - Lighting of the Tree with Mayor-elect Bud Clark and winner of the 62KGW light-the-tree drawing.

7:15 - Covenant Bell Choir, Youthsound Choir (Gospel songs).

7:30 - Holiday Medley, Portland Opera Chorus.

7:40 - Arrival of Father Christmas

7:45 - Ding-along, everyone!

7:55 - 'Mele Kalikimaka', Hawaiian Christmas Song, by Lyle Arthur, 62KGW.

8:30 - Caroling by one and all

The event will be broadcast in its entirety as a holiday special of the local television show, PM Magazine, on KGW-TV, Channel 8. And the lighting of the 5,000 lights on the Square's 70-foot fir tree will be broadcast as a special, live segment of the television show Faces and Places on KATU-TV, Channel 2.

At the event, the square is to be darkened before the tree-lighting, and when the tree is officially lighted, all special holiday lighting around the square will also be turned on in a dramatic opening of the Downtown holiday season.

Personalities on hand at the event will include 62KGW radio personalities Steve Lloyd and Lyle Arthur, as emcees; Father Christmas; Portland's own Cinnamon Bear; and mayor-elect Bud Clark.

Clark, along with the winner of a 62KGW drawing, a youngster 10 years of age or younger, will participate in the lighting of the tree.
