Don't miss your chance to name a band!

The new Stage Band of our Community Music Program, better known as the Jazmin Marching Band Program, needs a name. In 25 words or less — no more — send in your choice of name and your reasons for the choice. Based on originality, and the depths to which the name is rooted in and reflective of the community and the music played, a contest winner will be chosen. The Stage Band's present musical focus is on Swing, Jazz and the popular contemporary pieces of the 60s, 70s and 80s. Entries should be sent to:

Name A Band Contest, North/Northeast Community Music Program,
4815 N.E. 7th, Portland, OR 97211

Please include your name, address and phone number. Entries will be accepted from this paper's printing through January 5, 1985. Contest winner will receive a special prize and public recognition.

Cinnamon Bear at OMSI

There'll be magic aplenty at the annual OMSI Christmas party December 8 when nationally known magician Stan Greer will join Cinnamon Bear and Santa Claus for "A Child's Christmas Party."

The party, sponsored by the OMSI Women's Auxiliary, begins at 12:45 p.m. with refreshments and entertainment provided with the admission — $2 for children, $1 for adults.

For reservations, please call OMSI at 222-2828.

Picket at South African Consulate

A picket demanding the closure of an honorary South African Consulate's office in Portland, the release of political detainees in South Africa, and in support of the Free South Africa Movement, will take place at 838 SW First next week. All people opposed to the racist government of South Africa are invited to participate, rain or shine. Call 230-9427 for details. Participating organizations include Portlanders Organize for South Africa Freedom (POSAF) and the Black United Front.
