Don Clark to receive 1984 Peyton Award

On behalf of the Metropolitan Human Relations Commission, we are pleased to announce that Mr. Donald E. (Don) Clark has been selected as the 1984 recipient of the Russell A. Peyton Human Relations Award. This award is presented for outstanding involvement in human relations and civil rights advocacy and for promotion of intergroup relations throughout the Portland Metropolitan Area.

Don has been actively involved in the field of civil rights for many years.

DON CLARK

CHARLES JORDAN

His contribution to the entire community and his sincere dedication to serving and protecting the rights of low-income people make him a deserving recipient of this award.

The Commission will also honor Mr. Charles R. Jordan, ex-City Commissioner, for his outstanding contributions to our city and our community in the many years he served on the City Council.

In addition, three students from Harriet Tubman Middle School will receive awards for their compositions on ways to improve interracial acceptance and understanding.

Mayor Bud Clark will be the guest speaker at a luncheon honoring Don and Charles.

City Commissioner Margaret D. Strachan will acknowledge the work of Charles Jordan.

The luncheon will be held at the Red Lion Motor Inn, 310 S.W. Lincoln, Portland, Oregon, on January 10, 1985, from 12:00 noon to 2:30 p.m.

Cost of the luncheon will be $10 per person. Reservations can be made by calling 796-5136. Checks are to be made payable to the Russell A. Peyton Award Committee. Reservations must be made by check or money order before January 6, 1985.

Announcing wide area paging coverage without the wide area price.

The paging people who have always brought you selection and service now bring you one of the widest coverage areas in Portland.

Plus one big advantage: Our competitors charge you for "extended coverage." RAM includes it as standard bill of fare.

Premium coverage without a premium price. Because at RAM, we believe your pager is only as good as the area it reaches.

Learn about Concordia

A pizza party for Portland high school students and their parents who are interested in learning more about Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota, will be held at the home of Donald and Bonnie Hanson, 14505 N.E. Fremont Court, Portland, on Friday, December 28, at 6 p.m.

Barbara Hanson, a Concordia admissions counselor, will outline educational opportunities at the college and will assist those wanting help in making college plans.

Current Concordia students from the Portland area, alumni, parents and friends will also be in attendance.

The event has been planned by the CORD (Coordinated Outreach for Recruitment and Development) Committee in Portland, one of 32 organized throughout the United States to promote communications between Concordia College and their community. The Portland CORD chairpersons are the Hansons, phone (503) 252-3607.

In addition to the Hansons, the Portland CORD committee is comprised of Peggy Rodin, Milwaukie; Bruce and Jane Tauscher, Aloha; Beth Hart, Beaverton; Mark and Carolyn Lillehaugen, Portland; Les and Diane Zoller and Scott and Sue Stoa, all of Lake Oswego.

NIKE gives community grant

Paul Phillips, Director of Public Relations for Nike, presents a check for $10,000 to Skip Collier, chairman of the Northeast Community Development Corporation (NEDC). The grant and the locating of Nike's factory outlet store at Union Square were the results of discussions between Nike and the Black United Front. NEDC board members Rev. John Garlington and Rev. John Jackson look on. (Photo: Richard J. Brown)
