Specials include: 8:30 a.m., The Housewife's Cantata; 9:30 a.m., Public Affairs with Margret Butler; 11 a.m., Sounds of Awareness focuses on the particular issues of women who are disabled; 3:00 p.m., Carol Matsuyoshi presents Asian music and public affairs; Evening, Lady's Choice with Aida Rashad, live music, women in blues and R&B and more.

Community pancakes

The Emergency Fuel Drive is a community based organization that was formed to get free firewood to the elderly, handicapped, low income, and single parent families. This effort is supported by Rev. Jackson of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, Portland, and Rev. W. G. Hardy of Mt. Sinai Community Baptist Church, Portland, as well as Linda Johnson of T.H.E. C.R.I.B. (Total Home Environment Creative Recreation and Instructional Buildings) and numerous community volunteers.

On Saturday and Sunday, March 2 and 3, a Benefit Pancake Breakfast will be held at St. Andrews Catholic Church Community Center, 4940 N.E. 8th, to help raise funds for the construction of a pallet saw and a tool shed. Pancakes, eggs, bacon and sausage, fresh fruit, milk, coffee and tea will be served between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. on both days.

There will be live music and poetry readings by local artists. For more information and where to purchase tickets for the breakfast, call 284-0025. A donation of $2.50 is requested and tickets will be available at the door, also.

Breakdance for Ethiopia

Have you been wanting to do something to help the sick, starving children in Africa, but didn't know where to start? You can do something about it on March 15th!

Other young people who are concerned have arranged for a special break dance contest on Friday, March 15, at the Benson High School gym, and invite all students of all high schools in the metropolitan area to participate by selecting their four best break dancers as their school's team to compete in the "Breakin' Hunger" dance event.

Fabulous prizes and trophies are offered to the top winners, and all proceeds will go to the Ethiopian Relief Fund of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Intermission entertainment will include a young five-year-old imitator of Michael Jackson, known only as "Jerry," the Munchkins Too dance company and the David Douglas dance group. Judges for the event are Joe "Bean" Keller, Beau Richards and Sam Ryan.

Entry fee for each dancer is $10, or $40 per team. Tickets to attend are $6.00 each and may be purchased at the Creative T Shirt shop in Eastport Plaza, and the Hydrotube Restaurant on Washington Square Road. Call 287-KIDS to register by March 11th.

PSU presents drama

The Portland State University Theater Arts Department will be presenting its annual Lunch Box and Supper Box series February 26 through March 16. On March 5 - 7, the series will present an all-Black cast in "The Warning: A Theme for Linda," written by Ronald Milner.

The play takes place in an urban Detroit ghetto in the mid-60s and focuses on the expectations and moral values within a family structure. The title role of Linda is played by Ronsee Walker and the play is directed by Leonard Irving. All Lunch Box performances are from 12 noon to 1:00 p.m. in Lincoln Hall -115. For more information, call P.S.U. Theater Arts Department, 229-4612.

Spring artist workshop

Passin' Art; a theatre company, will be presenting a Spring Artist Workshop every Saturday evening beginning March 2, and running through April 13th. The workshop will be held at Matt Dishman Community Center (77 N.E. Knott) at 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon. The public is invited to attend the workshop. It is free of charge. For more information, call Connie Carley at 643-8832 days, 232-9811 evenings and weekend.
