RELIGION UPDATE

by Dee Armstrong

This week's UPDATE with food for thought: "In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." — St. John 14:2, 3.

Mark Horton and Good News

John 17:3 — "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent."

The message Mark Horton presents is "Good News!" The Good News that Jesus Christ, who preached, taught, healed and performed miracles over 2,000 years ago, is Alive and Well; and He is doing the same thing today!

The Good News is Jesus cares for you! Jesus truly loves you!

Because of God's great love, mercy, compassion and grace, Jesus stands willing, able, and ready to take hold of, and completely transform the life of anyone who will simply ask him, so that they can receive and enter into all that God has provided before the foundations of the world.

The Good News is that the devil, the enemy of all creation who seeks to kill, steal and destroy, has been stripped of his authority and defeated by Jesus. Jesus gives believers power to enforce the devil's defeat and walk in total victory!

To the fearful, tormented and depressed, the message is Jesus will deliver you! If you are being attacked in your body with pain, sickness or diseases, the message is Jesus is the Healer! For those in the world without peace of mind and hope, the message is Jesus will give you New Life! Problems or not, Jesus is The Answer!

Come and enjoy the exciting ministry of Evangelist Mark G. Horton this Friday, April 5, 7:00 p.m., and Saturday, April 6, 10:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., at Portland Community College Cascade Campus Auditorium, 705 N. Killingsworth. Admission is free for this Healing and Evangelistic Crusade.

Evangelist Mark Horton says, "You will never be the same. Bring the sick; Expect the Miraculous."

Warner and Patton married

Loretta Warner, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Felton Warner, and Charles Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, were married March 30, 1985 at New Birth Pentecostal Church by the bride's father, pastor of the church.

The bride wore an Albert Angelo original gown with white lace, clusters of pearls, a Victorian collar, bishop sleeves and an elegant cathedral train. Her bouquet was an original with cluster of pearls and flowers, centered with a large white orchid, which was removed and later worn as a corsage on the honeymoon.

The groom wore white. The bridesmaids were dressed in floor-length lavender dresses and long white gloves, each carrying lavender flowers with lavender baby-breath in their hair.

The sanctuary was beautifully decorated in white and lavender throughout, with lavender bows on the pews and large white flower baskets and gold candelabra in use. The flower girl dropped lavender flowers on the white runner before the bride made her entrance.

A chauffeured silver Rolls Royce took the newlyweds from the ceremony to the reception at the Grayson Inn, where music was furnished by the bride's brother, Craig Warner.

The wedding cake was a beautiful tower of layers, with each layer decorated with flowers.
