Northwest premiere

The Student Production Company of the IFCC (Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center) will present the Northwest Premiere of "Glimpses" during National Theatre Week. Performances are at 8:00 p.m., Friday and Saturday, June 7 and 8, at the IFCC, 5340 N. Interstate Ave.

Written by some very talented young playwrights, "Glimpses" is a collection of scenes, comic and dramatic monologues, and short plays that provide a fresh and insightful look at the world as young writers view it. Among the subjects treated in the play are such things as running away from home, high school popularity and "pecking order," and favorite clothes. Suited primarily to an audience of adults and teenagers, "Glimpses" was presented to great acclaim at the Louisville Actors Theatre's New Play Festival, where it received greater attention than many other entries by adult playwrights.

The IFCC's production of "Glimpses" will be directed by Terry Nelson and features some of the area's most talented student actors. Tickets are $4 and reservations may be made by calling the IFCC at 243-7930.

Hats off to the Northwest African American Ballet for a job well done at their annual concert held June 1st at Jefferson High School. Bruce Smith, you are a master!
