

SPORT TALK • SPORT TALK

Fifty-six of the United States' top soccer-playing boys under 16-years of age were brought together for four days by the United States Soccer Federation in Colorado Springs, Colorado, as part of this organization's efforts to pick the team that will represent the U.S. in the first annual Federation Internationale de Football (FIFA) Under-16 World Tournament for the Kodak Cup to be held in the People's Republic of China from July 31 through August 31 this summer. The team from the U.S. will compete against teams from 15 other countries including Argentina, Brazil and West Germany. Final determination on who will be the 16 players to represent the U.S. will be made by mid-June. Eastman Kodak Company is the major sponsor of the tournament.

How Coors keeps Anthony Elmore

kickin' pumpin' hittin' & scorin'.

Anthony Elmore is really getting a kick out of full-contact karate. He's champion, king of the Super-Heavyweights, in a sport he's ruled for the last three years.

Coors knows that's no mean achievement, and that's why the 'Electrifying Amp' Elmore is in our corner.

Coors is his sponsor. We're thrilled to be helping the 'Amp' take his exciting sport across America.

So if you ever have the opportunity—don't miss the charge of contact karate—and the man causing it—Anthony Elmore.

Outstanding talent must be free to stand out.
