Sam Naito

Elected to Board

PORTLAND — Portland businessman Samuel T. Naito has been elected to the board of directors of First Interstate Bank of Oregon.

"We are enthusiastic about Mr. Naito's joining our board," stated P.W. Wilke Jr., board chairman. "He has a fine business sense and has proved through his civic involvement to be a dedicated citizen."

Naito is a principal of the long-standing Portland firm Norcrest China, an importer/wholesaler doing business nationally. Norcrest also operates a chain of retail stores. And the company is a major developer of downtown Portland real estate.

The prominent business executive holds a B.A. in economics from the University of Utah and an M.S. from the Columbia University graduate School of Business.

Naito serves on the board of directors of Standard Insurance Co., and he is a member of the Oregon Transportation Commission.

A few of the other boards on which he serves include: the Oregon Historical Society, United Way, Lewis & Clark College, the International Trade and Commerce Institute of Portland State University, the Metropolitan Family Service Foundation, the Portland Sapporo Sister City Association, the Japanese Ancestral Society, the Medical Research Foundation, and the Japanese Garden Society of Oregon (past president).

Naito resides in Portland with his wife Mary. They have three grown children.

"With a little less luck, I could win a fortune."

Lou Lucas of Salem, Oregon was Oregon Lottery's first $5,000 winner.

So exclaimed Mr. Lou Lucas of Salem after winning an instant $5,000 in the Oregon Lottery. True, he said it with a grin on his face stretching from sea to sea. But, maybe he wasn't all kidding.

If, for instance, he'd been just a little less lucky, and won $100, he'd then be eligible for a chance to spin the Giant Jackpot Wheel. For up to millions of dollars more.

Sorry Lou. Guess you'll just have to buy a ticket for the Oregon Lottery's new game, "The Sky's The Limit". Only this time, try not to cross your fingers quite so hard.

With "The Sky's the Limit", you can now win up to $10,000 instantly.

And the odds are better than 1 in 10 that you'll win something.

And remember, Oregon wins with every ticket you buy.

So far, over $10 million has been raised for Economic Development. So, go ahead, buy yourself a ticket. Who knows, you may be really lucky, by being just a little less lucky than Lou.
