RELIGION UPDATE

by Dee Armstrong

Everyone and everything seem to be in an uproar these days. Children against their parents, brother against brother, sister against sister and marriages of longevity ending in divorce. There are marches, rallies, plane hijackings, violence and so-called peace demonstrations. Does this all mean that the end is near, the millennium? Christ's return for His people is at hand.

While preparing for work Friday of last week I listened to the "Today," news program which was tuned in on my television set with host Bryant Gumbel and Jane Pauley of NBC. Between hunting of one shoe and plugging in the curling iron, I heard the voice of Jane Pauley addressing one of four women who were the wives of four hostages held in Beirut by the hijackers of the TWO aircraft on Friday, June 14, say, "Tell our audience what happened to you this past Sunday." The woman (whose name I was never quite able to understand, spoke clearly and boldly, saying, "I was not taking this whole situation very well at all. I turned to tranquilizers for sleep; I could not understand how God could allow this to happen. I blamed him. After realizing the truth — it was not God but the devil," she said. "I accepted Christ as my personal Savior and now am a born-again Christian."

What a testimony to be aired on nation-wide television! By this time I was standing directly in front of the television praising God for another life preparing for His Kingdom!

Yes, the end might be sooner than we think, but one thing is for sure: God is still drawing people by His Spirit and often out of pain comes joy.

This week's UPDATE with food for thought: "O, taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him." — Psalm 34:8

Thomas Jefferson, the nation's third president, was one of the most accomplished and versatile of the nation's founders. He spoke six languages, was a surveyor, scientist, lawyer, musician, politician and architect.

A Poem of Memberance

Blood on the Badge
(In memory of L. D. Stevenson)

Blood on the badge
churns the Rose City's latest batch of slime.
The blue maggoty episode reflects
a genocidal department running amuck with
nincompoops for public servants.
And what will justice mete?
wrist slapping?
demotion?
or perhaps the Chief will fire.
No pun intended
although it is worth remembering
because the slogan
"Don't Choke 'Em, Smoke 'Em"
did not evolve out of Stevenson's
death.
No!
it's part and partial of a
department's refusal to police.
Albeit:
Don't Reprove 'Em, Fire 'Em.

— Nathaniel Scott
