BlackRock '88 audition dance

The Groove Factor J. W. Friday will be holding a BlackRock '88 audition dance on July 12th at Matt Dishman Community Center, 77 N.E. Knott, at 9:00 p.m. All dancers must be at least 16 years old and not older than 20. Dancers will be selected by J. W. Friday. Entry fee will be $3.00 per person.

Concert for the hungry

The Emmanuel Temple Mass Choir will be the "grande finale" of Portland's "Concert for the Hungry," July 14 at the Masonic Temple. The 46-member group with solo artist Cinda Jackson who is only 13 years old, will sing a modern gospel song, "For the Rest of my Life." The group also consists of a bass guitar, guitar, drums and piano. The Emmanuel Temple Mass Choir has been together since 1972 and has become highly respected under the direction of President Clifton Wells and group leader Sue Brazzle. Other acts will be the rock group Nu Shooz, the Pacific Ballet Theatre, the big band jazz group, Just 17, Scott Frangos, magician will disappear from a box on stage, TGV and Pure Class. In the foyer will be all kinds of entertainment for the kids: clowns, close-up magicians, a ventriloquist and mime artists. The on-stage show will begin at 3:00, but come early for the food booths and for the entertainment in the foyer. All proceeds will go to Red Cross African Relief and the Intergency Food Bank. Ticket price is $7.50 adult; $2.50, 12 and under. Tickets can be purchased at any of the G.I. Joe's outlets, Meier and Frank and the Jean Machine in the Galleria.
