

Oregonized Party and Auction to benefit Oregon's Vietnam Vets

A party and auction to be held August 4 at Aurora Airport in Aurora, Oregon, will help fund a memorial to the Vietnam Veterans of Oregon.

"We're calling the Oregonized Party and Auction," said Doug Bomarito, president of the Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial Fund. Most of the items donated for this auction are from Oregon."

The Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial Fund was established specifically to raise money for a memorial to recognize the 57,000 Oregonians who served in Vietnam and honor the 659 dead and 47 missing in action.

"When several other Oregon Vietnam Veterans and I saw the National Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., we wanted to create a memorial here in Oregon just for Oregon Vietnam Vets," said Robert Hunter, board director, Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial Fund.

Having decided a memorial was wanted, the question became: What sort of memorial was it to be?

It was decided that the memorial should provide an opportunity to reconcile differences that arose out of the Vietnam War and to acknowledge the efforts of those who served our country.

The landscape architectural firm of Walker and Macy has developed a design which fulfills all the qualifications of the board. The memorial will be built on land midway between the Western Forestry Center and Hoyt Arboretum in Washington Park.

Consistent with the arboretum, the memorial park will grow and change with the seasons and the years. It will be a place of containment and retreat from the activity around it as well as a place for viewing the surrounding city, valley and distant Cascade Mountains.

Visitors to the Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial Park will discover a place to remember and reflect.

The Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial will be funded entirely by donations. The Vietnam Veterans are counting on the support of all Oregonians to get this memorial built.

The group has put on several fundraising functions to date, but the Oregonized Party and Auction planned for August 4th at Aurora Airport will be one of the most ambitious yet.

"The day will feature exciting entertainment, including the U.S. Parachute Association Skydivers, antique aircraft and aircraft displays and lots more," said Doug Bomarito.

Entertainment starts at 3 p.m. Food will be available and beverages will be free.

The auction segment gets underway at 3:30 p.m. with a silent auction. An auction follows with auctioneer Colonel Jeffrey Mandell. Auction goers will have a chance to bid on a wide selection of varied Oregon donations.

The Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial Fund hopes to raise enough money through the Oregonized Party and Auction and other fundraising activities as well as donations to achieve the $400,000 cost of building the memorial.

Tickets are $5.00 with children under 12 free. To get your tickets contact the Vietnam Veterans of Oregon Memorial Fund at 9880 S.W. Beaverton Hillsdale Highway, Suite 202, Beaverton, OR 97005, or call 646-4984.

Two fast and easy late summer treats are Almond Chocolate Sodas — Butter Almond ice cream combined with chocolate milk and club soda, and Ice Cream Cookie Snacks — big bakery sugar cookies topped with fresh fruit and vanilla ice cream scoops.

Ice cream cooler

New in local supermarkets is a fresh and creamy, all natural ice cream. Since 1866 an east coast favorite, the product contains nothing artificial... only the finest and freshest real milk, dairy cream, fruits, roasted nuts, real sugar and pure natural flavorings.

Ice cream lovers can choose from among 15 varieties, all made with a generous amount of natural flavorings. Each package bears a Pledge of Purity, guaranteeing the product's natural goodness and quality.

But the real proof of quality is in the tasting! Just scoop and enjoy... or have fun with quick and easily prepared treats such as the frosty Almond Chocolate Sodas and giant Ice Cream Cookie Snacks pictured here. The sodas are a one-two-three combination of chocolate milk, club soda and Butter Almond ice cream. Tiny scoops of vanilla ice cream — made with a melon baller — and fresh fruit top the giant sugar cookies.
