A Night to Remember

"A Night to Remember" is the theme of Rose City Connection's 3rd Annual Benefit Fashion Show to be presented on Saturday, Oct. 5.

The annual fashion shows have been the highlight of Rose City Connection's year-round fundraising activities. "This show promises to be the best yet," says Barbara Taylor, a member of the organization.

Using experienced models such as Ronee Walker, Denice Williams, Dania Danner, Von Ray Johnson, Carrie Moore, Richard Pattiford and others, they will be presented fashion scenes that will focus on the theme of the evening. Attire for the models will be furnished by Weatherfords, M. Willocks, Schumacher Furs, Mario's, Vomo Giovane and others. In addition, there will be musical entertainment by "CleanCut" and other surprises.

Guests at the show will also be the first to see and be able to purchase the new "Men of Portland '86" calendar. The calendar will feature noted local personalities such as Clyde Draxler, Mayor Bud Clark, James DePriest, Pete Schulberg, and Ron Steen.

Proceeds from the fashion show and calendar go to help support local educational and scholarship programs for ethnic minorities. Charles Stoudamire of Rose City Connection, states that "our ultimate goal is to start our own scholarship fund."

Tickets for the fashion show are $12 in advance, $15 at the door and are available at the House of Sound, 3634 N. Williams Avenue.

For additional information on the fashion show and calendar or general information about Rose City Connection, please call 287-2869.

Paintings on display

Water color paintings by Warrenton artist Carol Riley are on display in the Governor's Office through Oct. 18.

Riley's vivid works featuring flowers and fruit have been exhibited throughout Oregon, including in the Lawrence galleries in Portland and at Salishan, at the Carole Smith Gallery in Salem, at Hanson-Howard Galleries in Ashland, at Portland's Artquake and at the Oregon State Fair in Salem. The Sunriver Art Competition, the Oregon Watercolor Competition, and the Western Region Print, Painting and Drawing Competition have all recognized Riley's work.

A member of the Northwest Print Council Board of Directors, Riley teaches at the Sitka Center for Art and Ecology. She has been active in the Artist-in-the-School Program since 1976 and has worked on 63 separate mural projects in 30 schools. Her art decorates the walls of Oregon State University, Willamette University, the Lake Oswego Public Library and the Portland Art Museum.

Riley is a graduate of Scripps College in Claremont, California (B.A. in painting, 1968) and Reed College in Portland (M.A.T. in Art, 1969).

Gov. Atiyeh will host a reception for the artist on Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 3:30 p.m.

CleanCut returns to 6th Ave.

Portland's hottest vocal group, CleanCut, will be returning to the 6th Ave. Club (formerly Old Town Saloon) in the month of October. CleanCut consists of four lead vocalists: Mary Turner, Richard Greer, Ronee Walker and Joe (Bean) Keller. Music will be played by the CleanCut Band. Video taping scheduled for a previous 6th Ave. engagement which was cancelled will take place on this performance date. Read next week's Portland Observer for exact date and time.

Musical Extravaganza

Oct. 18th and 19th are the targeted dates scheduled for the 1st Annual Musical Extravaganza. The two-day event will feature a variety of Portland's finest musical groups. Groups slated for the event are Valvet, the Strawberry Gamblers, CleanCut, along with many others. The extravaganza will take place at Lung Fung's Dragon Room. Read next week's Portland Observer for further details. Presented by B.E.A.N.
