VA OFFERS SPECIAL INCENTIVES TO EMPLOYERS

The Veterans Administration will offer special incentives to employers hiring certain disabled veterans in an effort to "bridge any gaps" which may prevent some from being employed or fully employed, says Portland VA Regional Office Director, Robert L. Winters.

Winters said special provisions of the VA's vocational rehabilitation program allow programs to employers to encourage the placement of disabled veterans. The payment can cover up to nine months of work experience or on-job training to enable the veteran to adjust to and maintain employment.

Under a written agreement with the employer, VA will pay for direct expenses that result from hiring the veterans and which do not exceed one-half of the wage paid to other employees in the same or similar jobs.

Only private sector employers, including non-profit agencies and organizations are eligible for this incentive program. Payments may not be made to public employers, including federal, state and local agencies.

Employers wishing to participate should contact the Regional Vocational Rehabilitation Officer, Gordon Campbell, at 221-5077, VA Regional Office, 1220 S.W. Third, Portland, OR 97204.
