Project of the Week

A bookcase to encourage reading
by Steve Ellingson

Let this unique bookcase help you encourage your children to discover the joys of reading at an early age. Many children who do not develop their reading skills while still young fall behind later on in their education. Introduce them to Sam the St. Bernard bookcase and he'll soon become one of their best pals sharing his stories of adventure to faraway places.

"Sam" stands 3 1/2 feet tall and 2 feet wide. The shelf depth is a good 11 inches to easily hold even large-size picture books as well as a few favorite dolls or stuffed animals. Step-by-step directions and full-size traceable patterns make this a quick-and-easy project... even for the beginning woodworker. Also included on the plan is a color guide for painting Sam's features.

To obtain Doggie Bookcase, Pattern No. 777, please send $3.95. For a collection of five different pieces of children's furniture such as a robot dresser, child's rocker and more, ask for No. C19, Kiddie Furniture, $6.75 (No. C19 does NOT include No. 777). All prices include First Class Postage and handling. Also available is our Patterns for Better Living catalog, picturing over 700 wood-working and handicraft projects, $2.95. California residents please add 6 percent sales tax. Send check or money order to Steve Ellingson, c/o Portland Observer, P. O. Box 2383, Van Nuys, CA 91409-2383.

'Radiance' to appear locally

It is, quite simply, a rare assemblage of remarkable musical talent, a seven-man aggregate from one of America's premier musical cities, Oakland, making memorable modern music that catches and holds from the very first listening. The group is Radiance and never has a sound so closely matched a name. The smooth, sophisticated and definitely danceable approach of their debut album on Qwest Records is a shining example of the very best in contemporary creativity by a group with a very bright future indeed.

Pick N Choose is the title of Radiance's first vinyl outing and with a selection of sizzling original tunes, some of the tightest arrangements and most electrifying performances anywhere on record, it may well be the debut offering of the season. Produced by Reggis "Reg" Griffin, Pick N Choose highlights a spectrum of state-of-the-art rhythmic and melodic blends, mixing sassy lyrics with propulsive, driving dance music. "All Night" is Radiance's first Qwest single, but cuts like "Where Da Freaks At," "Electra-fine Lady," "Lollipop Lover," and "Can't Keep My Hands To Myself," guarantee that it won't be the last. Pick N Choose is a crackling, high-energy, irresistible album from a group who are just beginning to change the sound of tomorrow.

Radiance will be appearing in Portland on Sunday, Nov. 3rd, at the Masonic Temple, 1119 S.W. Park at 8:00 p.m. All ages are welcome.

World Community Day

World Community Day on Friday, Nov. 1, is a national observance sponsored annually by Church Women United that unites Christian women in an ecumenical experience that focuses on issues of world peace and their individual and collective part in that process. This year's service, written by churchwomen from the farm belt of America — Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, North and South Dakota — is entitled "Harvest of Blessings." It expresses values born of closeness to and reverence for the earth that produces food for the hungry of the world. The service also reflects the challenge felt by these rural women as they recount their blessings, their feelings about family, home, land, and their own responsibilities in light of a broadened world consciousness.

In Portland, World Community Day observances will take place at the Sunnyside United Methodist Church, 3520 S.E. Yamhill at 9:30 a.m. Speakers for the celebration will be Barbara J. Winans, Executive Director of FISH Emergency Service, Inc., and Dave Adams, Oregon State University Extension Service of Multnomah County.

The Royal Esquire Club's Community Service Statement by A.D.S.

Volume XIV

Fall is here for sure, and winter is coming on. Don't forget to winterize your car and home heating units.

The Holiday Season is approaching. In order to fully enjoy it, you must remain cool, calm and sober.

The Royal Esquire Club, through its associated memberships, will be here to help you have fun. In November, the club will hold a talent show which will be fun; in October the club held a Halloween costume party which was fun. In December the club will host a number of parties. I am sure they will all be fun. More on dates later.
