REQUEST FOR LETTERS OF INTEREST

TRANSIT NEEDS STUDY

The Public Transit Division, Oregon Department of Transportation, is seeking letters of interest from qualified transit planning consultants to undertake a Transit Needs Study. The purpose of the study is to evaluate the financial needs of transit in Oregon and to determine if current funding programs are adequate to meet projected needs. Firms interested in responding should be experienced in transit planning.

Letters of interest should include a brief statement of the firm's qualifications as well as descriptions of similar projects. All letters must be received at the Public Transit Division offices by 5:00 p.m., Friday, November 8, 1985. Letters should be addressed as follows:

Lee LaFontaine
Public Transit Division
Room 131, Transportation Building
Salem, Oregon 97310

This request for letters of interest is not a solicitation for bids or proposals. Those firms judged to be qualified because of their capabilities and previous experience will be asked to submit complete proposals later.

Inquiries regarding this request should be directed to Lee LaFontaine and may be made by writing to the above address or by calling (503) 378-8201.
