The Portland Trail Blazers defeated the Cleveland Cavaliers 110-107, Sunday at the Memorial Coliseum. Portland was led by center Sam Bowie, who scored 24 points and forward Kiki Vandeweghe who tossed in 21 points. Kenny Carr came off the bench for the Blazers and pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds to go with 11 points.

The Cavaliers were led by guard

World B. Free who scored 30 points before fouling out and forward Roy Hinson who scored 18 points and pulled down the game-high 14 rebounds.

The Trail Blazers placed ex-University of Maryland star Ben Coleman on waivers Monday. Coleman, a 6-foot, 9-inch forward has been on the injury list the entire season.

NFL updates

The Seattle Seahawks pounded the New Orleans Saints 27 to 3. The victory over the Saints improved the Seahawks' record to 6-4. The Seahawks are tied with the L.A. Raiders for second place in the Western Division of the American Conference, one game behind the Denver Broncos.

The Chicago Bears ran their season record to 10-0 by destroying the Detroit Lions 24-3. The Bears' defensive unit dominated the Lions' offensive unit.

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers won their first game of the season by blanking the unpredictable St. Louis Cardinals 16-0.

Ducks beat Australia

The Oregon Ducks defeated a team from Australia 71-64. The Ducks were led by former Beaverton High star Anthony Taylor, who scored 14 points for the Ducks.

PIL

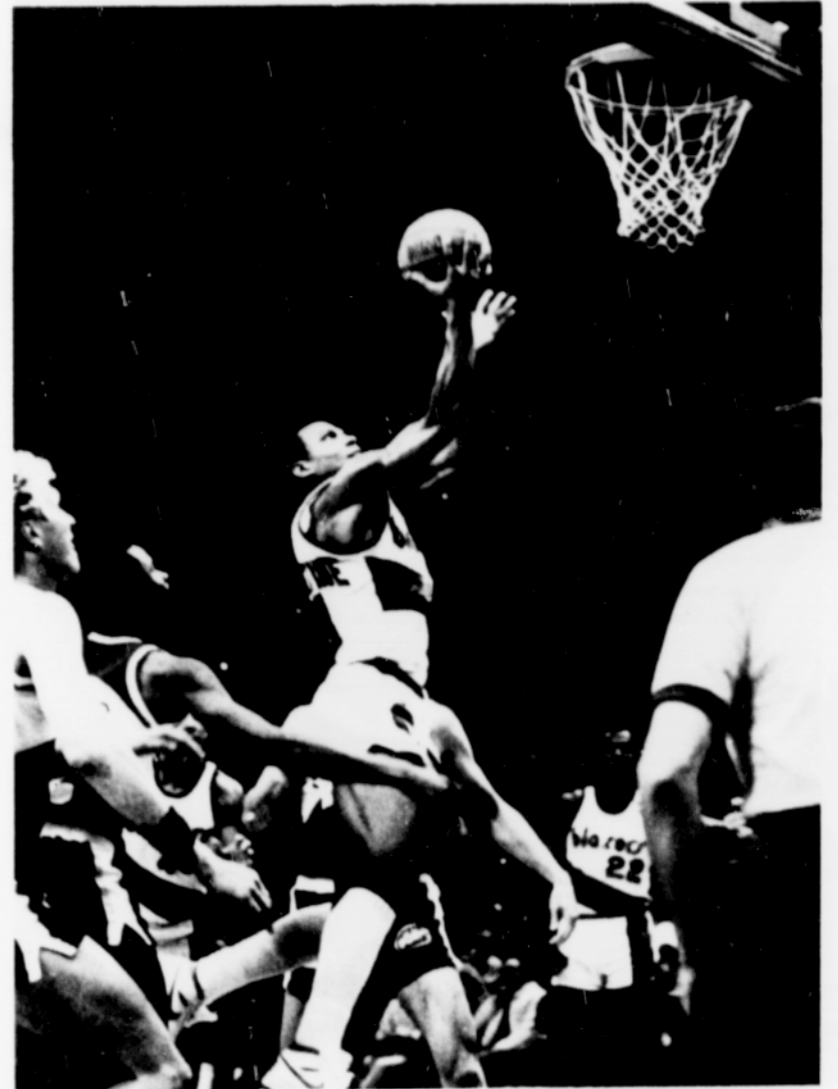

Last Friday Benson was upset in the first round of Oregon Class AAA playoffs 12-7 by the La Grande Tigers. Benson's low score came on the second play of the game, when Paul Jackson raced 68 yards along the right sideline.

Gresham defeated Wilson 39-20. The only team left from the PIL is Madison. Madison, champions of the PIL, defeated North Salem 20-8. Madison 10-0 plays Churchill 10-0 next.

Cy Young Award

World Series hero Bret Saberhagen of the Kansas City Royals, won the Cy Young Award as the best pitcher in the American League. Saberhagen was 21-7 during the regular season and won two World Series games.

At age 21, Saberhagen became the youngest pitcher, and the first Royals pitcher to win the Cy Young Award.

How Coors keeps Essie Askew's pioneering spirit from losing its spark.

It took a certain pioneering spirit to travel the long road from homemaker to being the only black female beer distributor in America. But with a little encouragement from us, Essie Askew has not only made it along that rocky path but has gone on to prosper. She is a leading distributor of Coors beer in Illinois. Her special combination of business savvy and spark has allowed growth and expansion for her company and for the smooth entry of Coors into Illinois.

Coors undoubtedly has a fine future in that state. For with distributors like Essie Askew, you can rest assured that "The Best of the Rockies" will always be there.

Outstanding talent must be free to stand out.
