Holiday Gospel Concert

On Saturday, Nov. 30, 6:00-8:00 p.m., in Pioneer Courthouse Square, the Association for Portland Progress will feature Portland's own Miss Willa Dorsey, international gospel star as principal soloist and director, in Portland's first city-wide Holiday Gospel Concert.

Host Herb Cawthorne, executive director of the Urban League of Portland, will narrate Langston Hughes' "Black Nativity."

Performing will be 100 voices, drawn from church choirs and choruses throughout the metro area, including Fellowship Church of God, Lighthouse Mission Church, Maranatha Church, and Salvage Memorial Presbyterian Church. Instrumentalists will include Calvin Allmon, Barbara Fredrickson, Elaine SchAAF, Marvin Spires, Vinson Coleman, Jerry Harris, Jr., Terrance McCuller, Cary Simms, and Phillis Whitmore.

After the concert, audience and choir will join voices for traditional carols and popular holiday songs. Songbooks will be provided.

All participants are encouraged to bring gifts of canned food to the Square. Interagency food bank collection barrels will be on the Square during the concert.

Klymaxx/Fresh Concert

Tuesday, Dec. 3, Portland will be able to hear two of the nation's hottest R&B acts, Klymaxx and Doug E. Fresh and the Get Fresh Crew. Klymaxx, an all-female group known for hits such as "I Miss You," "The Men All Pause" and "Meeting in the Ladies Room," have been dazzling their audience for the past several years. Doug E. Fresh, the King of the Rappers, has been known for his outstanding hit "The Show" and has presented the new sound of the Hip Hop era.

The concert will take place at the Civic Auditorium beginning at 7:00 p.m. All ages are invited. Advance tickets are $13.00 and available at House of Sound, GI Joe's, Civic Box office and the Galleria Jean Machine. The public is encouraged to pick up their tickets in advance to show local support. Hope to see you there. Presented by ChrystalClear Productions.
