

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is shown using his key asset, his dynamic oratorical style, as he inspires a crowd with his civil rights message.

The Living King: Ebony honors the Drum Major for Justice

In honor of the first national holiday commemorating the birth of the slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Ebony presents a special section, "The Living King," in the January issue.

This moving special section—in photos, reprints, and essays—brings to life both the joy and the tears of Dr. King's leadership of the non-violence movement. Included are: a reprint of Dr. King's most famous speech, "I Have a Dream"; the King Holiday Legislation with remarks by President Reagan and Mrs. King; "Important Dates in the Life of Martin Luther King, Jr.," a year-by-year chronicle from birth to assassination; "Martin's Legacy," by

Coretta Scott King; "The Young Martin," childhood remembrances by his sister, Christine King Farris; and "Memorable Photos from the King Years."

In addition, 10 well-known people including the Rev. Jesse Jackson, Senator Edward Kennedy, and Atlanta Mayor Andrew Young tell how Dr. King influences their lives today; King artwork and commemorative stamps from around the world are featured; books authored by Dr. King are spotlighted; and historian Lerone Bennett, Jr. explains "The Real Meaning of the King Holiday."
