Specially designed pin to commemorate King

A specially designed pin commemorating the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is being introduced through a unique marketing plan that will enable churches and other non-profit organizations to participate in its merchandising.

Milton Sherrill, renowned sculptor and painter from New York, was commissioned by the company, Famous Faces Inc., to create an elegant lapel pin with the sculpted image of the late civil rights activist and humanitarian. Under a license agreement from the Estate of Dr. King, the 3/4-inch relief pin will be manufactured and then distributed nationally as well as internationally.

The introduction of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Inaugural Pin coincides with the first national observance of the late leader's birthday Jan. 20. The pin's first public unveiling and announcement of the distribution and merchandising plan was made at the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A. annual gathering at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta on Sept. 2, 1985.

The inaugural pin is being produced in bronze, silver and gold electro-plate as well as sterling silver, gold filled and 10 kt., 14 kt. and 18 kt. gold. Prices for the pins range from $19.95 for bronze to $260.00 for the 18 kt. gold.

The sculpted image of Dr. King is also being offered in a charm and medallion. Like the pin, the charm is also 3/4 inches in diameter and comes in all the same surfaces. The medallion, a traditional disc design, measures 1 1/2 inches in diameter and comes in gold electro-plate only.

"The sculpted pin, charm and medallion provide everyone the opportunity to purchase both a work of fine jewelry and fine art," said Mr. Sherrill. "We are urging all Americans to wear these items with love, not only on Dr. King's birthday, but whenever they want to make a personal statement of what he has meant to us all."

For information about purchasing the fine jewelry, write Famous Faces, Inc., P.O. Box 2421, Mt. Vernon, New York, NY 10550.
