

"A Hard Road to Glory" to Appear on KGW-TV

On Sunday, February 9 at 3:00 p.m., KGW-TV, Portland, will be airing "A Hard Road To Glory," the one-hour made-for-television special on the history of the Black American athlete. The program has cleared 18 of the top 20 markets and will air in over 75% of the country.

The special traces the history of the Black athlete from his early days in Africa through his years in American slavery to today. Tennis great Arthur Ashe is the on-camera host. The special is based on his three years of research on the Black American athlete. Acclaimed actor James Earl Jones is the narrator and Grammy award-winning singer and actor Lou Rawls performs the theme song.

"Unlike the athletic history of other racial and ethnic groups, the wins and losses in Black athletic history had a direct bearing on the advancement of our people as a group in society," said Ashe. "A Hard Road To Glory" finally brings to television a part of Black history that has never before been chronicled in its entirety.

The nationally syndicated special is produced by ProServ Television in cooperation with Budweiser.

ProServ Television supplies series and special programming, along with a wide range of sporting events, to a complete range of delivery systems. ProServ Television is a division of ProServ, Inc., the international sports marketing firm based in Washington, D.C.

Northeast YMCA

Indoor Soccer

The Northeast YMCA will for the first time offer Indoor Soccer for boys and girls, grades 1-6. Indoor Soccer is a new and exciting sport that is much like Outdoor Soccer, with a few exceptions: 4 walls make-up the boundary of the field, so the ball never goes out of play allowing for non-stop action. Teams are made up of 5 players on the field rather than 9, meaning more ball handling and fun for the fewer players. Finally, the ball used in indoor soccer is a coated nerf ball; as opposed to a hard soccer ball. The kids are unafraid to learn headers and other blocking techniques.

Sign-ups for the 1986 program will begin on Saturday, February 22nd 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and will continue until Saturday March 22nd, 5:00 p.m. Cost is $25.00 for Y-members and $30.00 for non Y-members. Financial assistance for families in need is available. For more information contact:
