San Diego — Portland's Jerry Phillips has been named company honorman for Recruit Company 247 at the Navy's Recruit Training Command here.

Phillips, the 19-year-old son of Gloria Phillips of Portland, was selected for the prestigious Navy League award from among the 70 recruits in his company who graduated from boot camp January 31.

"I joined the Navy because I wanted to travel and go to sea," said Phillips, a 1985 graduate of Grant High School. "I also like the pay and benefits."

Phillips enlisted for four years of active duty and will receive specialized training as a mess management specialist before joining the fleet.
