

SPECIAL JOBS FOR VOLUNTEERS

DRIVERS

Elderly and handicapped people are driven to and from various destinations according to the schedule provided by the dispatcher at Special Mobility Services. Hot meals are delivered to the home bound by drivers for Loaves and Fishes. Visually impaired clients of Vision Northwest need to be driven to support group meetings throughout the tri-county area. The American Cancer Society needs volunteers to drive cancer patients to and from treatment centers.

VARIETY

The Salvation Army uses volunteers to help the agency provide a variety of services to its clients. Receptionists answer phones and provide information to visitors, instructors teach calligraphy, bridge and a variety of arts and crafts to senior citizens or young people, infant and toddler care is provided for teenage mothers at a residential facility.

BIKE TRIPS

Eight different week-long bike trips for teenagers are being offered this summer by the Washington County Branch of the YMCA. Trip leaders help plan, recruit counselors, maintain trip records and have the responsibility to ensure that the trip is a safe and enjoyable experience. Four counselors accompany each group and assist the leader with supervision. Orientation, training and check-out rides are required of leaders and counselors before the trips.

EVENING/WEEKEND OPPORTUNITIES

BOARD MEMBERS

The Volunteer Bureau is always interested in talking to people who want to serve on the board or advisory committee of a non-profit organization. Potential board candidates are interviewed by The Bureau and then referred to the agency whose services and request most closely match the volunteer's experience, skills, time availability and interests. Call The Volunteer Bureau to talk about becoming a board candidate.
