Fabric Painting Offered at Oregon Art Institute

Learn techniques for handpainting and blockprinting on cotton and silk fabrics in a fabric painting workshop. June 21, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Oregon Art Institute. Sandy Sciarrotta, a nationally recognized surface design artist, teaches contemporary versions of traditional resist dyeing methods using tape, wax, folding and her own squeeze bottle technique. Tuition is $40 and includes basic materials. Call 226-0462 for registration information.

The Oregon Art Institute is the oldest and largest visual arts institution in the state, and operates the Portland Art Museum, Pacific Northwest College of Art and Northwest Film and Video Center. It also operates the Rental Sales Gallery and Museum Shop.

The Art Institute is located on Southwest Park at Jefferson.

The Mason-Dixon line was made by Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon, two astronomers, to settle a boundary dispute between two landholders.

Prince Hall Mason Crowned

Blow Jr. 32° was crowned a 33° Mason, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania along with 118 other Prince Hall Masons, dispersed around the Globe from, as far away as Okinawa and the Bahamas, for the 105th Annual Session of the United Supreme Council A.A.S.R., N.J. PHA. Those in testimony to witness this Special Occasion, were the Deputy of the State of Oregon, Ill. William B. Odom Jr. (SGIG) and the remaining Ill. Sirs: The M.W. Joseph L. Harvey (Grand Master of Oregon and its' Jurisdiction P.H.A.) Ill. Andrew Childs, Lucius C. Ellison, C. Don Vann, Thomas R. Vickers and Buerett J. Wasson. Attending the Banquet were the immediate family of the recipient, from the Empire State New York, New York.

Prayer Seminar

A one day prayer seminar will be held July 12 at the Exec-U-Lodge, 6221 N.E. 82. The featured speaker is evangelist Brenda Wright, founder and president of Wake Up Black America, Inc. — a full service, non-profit inter-denominational ministry.

The seminar, scheduled from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., will focus on the methodology of Biblical study and the importance of prayer. The approach is simplistic, but gets dynamite results.

The seminar is open to both men and women seeking a more productive prayer life.

The $10.00 registration fee (lunch included) can be sent to: Mrs. Esther Hinson, 1732 NE Hancock, Portland, Oregon 97212. For further information, call Mrs. Hinson at 287-5931 or Mrs. Marjorie McCuller at 632-3500.

4th Annual Black Womens' Gathering

The 4th Annual Black Womens' Gathering will take place on Saturday, June 28th from Noon till 5:00 p.m. at the Matt Dishman Community Center, 77 NE Knott St. This celebration of "Our Being, Our Spirit and Our Survival" will include Information Tables, Entertainment, a Potluck Lunch and Free Child Care.

The gathering is open to Black Women of all ages. The focus this year is on networking and providing information on subjects of interest to Black Women in Portland and throughout the State. Some of these subjects are Health, Education, Community Organizing, Volunteer Opportunities and Employment Opportunities.

An open mike will be available during the program to allow for information sharing about organizational needs, upcoming events, introduction of Women new to the city, etc. The Black Women's Gathering Steering Committee includes: Avel Gordly, Faye Williams & Faye Burch Co Chairs, Committee Members include Donna Kelley, Mattie Petersen, Donna Maxey-Pomerantz, Chris Poole, Gina Wood, Pam Smith, Bobbie Gary, Jean Vessup, Star Waters, Antionette Edwards and Pier Ormond. Their planning efforts have been aided by a number of volunteers working on sub-committees.

For more information you may contact one of the Co-Chairs; Faye Williams, 289-6760; Faye Burch, 282-1493; or Avel Gordly, 282-1493.

Rally Planned for Harrington

On Sunday, June 22, 1986 at 2:00 p.m. in Terry Schunk Plaza, supporters of Penny Harrington will gather to express their support for her policies as Portland's Chief of Police and to express their hope that those policies will be continued.

Community leaders scheduled to speak are State Representative Margaret Carter, Businessman Jerry Swanson, Ecumenical Ministries' Rodney Page, Urban League Executive Director Herb Cawthorne, Multnomah County Juvenile Services Executive Director Marge Kafoury, and Businesswoman Chrys Martin.

The rally is organized by a newly formed group called "People for Penny." Elizabeth Waters, organizer, reports that the program has not been completed. Other organizations have contacted the group and want to send representatives or letters of support. She stated, "It looks like we will have a large turn out of supporters. The list keeps growing. People really want to thank Penny for her outstanding work on behalf of the citizens of Portland. The Mayor, the City Commissioners and Portland Police need to know what citizens feel and want from their police agency."
