

SPECIAL JOBS FOR VOLUNTEERS

TUTORS

The Springdale Job Corps Center, located in Troutdale, needs volunteers to tutor academic and vocational skills; students at the center are disadvantaged youth being taught skills that will help them enter the work force. Volunteers tutor weekdays between 8 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.; all materials are provided by the agency.

YARD SERVICE SUPERVISORS

Members of the Evergreen Club, part of the Southeast Mental Health Network, have begun a project that provides lawn service in southeast Portland. Supervisors accompany crews to their job sites, provide advice and instruction and encourage club members as they work. Volunteer supervisors are needed during daytime hours on Monday, Wednesday or Thursday.

JOB DEVELOPMENT COUNSELORS

Youth Progress Association helps boys ages 14-18 complete their education and secure employment that will allow them to function independently and successfully in the community. The agency has a real need for job development counselors to work in the office telephoning potential employers, matching youth with employment opportunities and counseling them how to hold a job. Job development counselors work daytime hours in the agency's southeast Portland office.

EVENING/WEEKEND OPPORTUNITIES

GRAPHIC ARTISTS

A variety of agencies need volunteers with graphic art skills. In every case the agency provides all necessary materials, project completion is at the volunteer's convenience and much of the work can be done at home. A senior center needs a graphic artist to help produce its newsletter; a daycare agency in Hillsboro needs its brochures and materials for speaking engagements updated; a youth placement agency needs someone to design posters and flyers for its adoption program; a city agency needs pen and ink drawings for a program guide, brochures for a plant sale, a logo design for a community center and posters for community schools programs.

PROGRAM AIDES

Friendly House is a multi-service center in northwest Portland offering help for troubled adolescents, seniors, families with pre-school children and people in need of emotional support. Club 53, a program of Friendly House, is a socialization and support group for chronically mentally ill adults and needs volunteers to attend club functions and act as role models for members seeking to reintegrate into society. Volunteers at Club 53 work evenings and weekends.

a non-profit agency that works with approximately 200 programs and agencies in Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties and matches prospective volunteers with service needs.
