Safeway Receives Presidential Award

President Reagan awarded the nation's highest honor for Private Sector Initiative (PSI) to thirty businesses and associations at a ceremony in the White House Rose Garden. Seventy other organizations received citations for outstanding voluntary services.

Safeway Stores Inc., one of the award winners, donated annually more than $2 million dollars in food and non-food items to local feeding programs and food banks. Additionally, the Seattle Division of Safeway installed 10,000 safety belts on their shopping carts to insure child safety.

The award winners were chosen from more than 1,500 organizations registered in the 1986 Presidents Citation Program for Private Sector Initiatives.

Willa Dorsey Sings at Sickle Cell Benefit

Willa Dorsey will sing at the Portland Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation's Second Annual Benefit Banquet Saturday, September 20th, at the Executive Lodge, located at 6221 N.E. 82nd, Portland, Oregon, at 6 p.m. There will be a no-host bar beginning at 5:30 p.m. This year the banquet will be combined with an auction headed by Mr. Curt Cummack, Auctioneer. There will be door prizes, and Willa will be joined by Little Goldie, and the Psalms to help spearhead this exciting worthwhile event with Dr. Fadulu as the Keynote.

To hear Willa Dorsey sing is to experience the ultimate spiritual power of sacred song. Willa's vocal artistry goes beyond talent and technique to evoke in the listener a sense of worship of the true and living God. She interprets the moods of worship ranging from sublime joy to hushed reverence and allows those who are privileged to hear her to vicariously share in the wonder of it all.

From humble beginnings at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Atlanta, GA, Willa's musical development progressed to studies with Metropolitan Opera singer Robert McFerrin and Dr. J. DeKoven Killingsworth of Clark College in Atlanta, but always her interest and devotion gravitated to gospel music.

Willa has traveled throughout the world and has shared the message of her songs in German, Spanish, French, English and Dutch. Since 1970, she has completed 15 European tours and 7 tours to the Orient in addition to the Caribbean, South America, Australia, Russia, Poland, Hungary, and Israel.

Willa's voice has graced auditoriums, churches, and concert halls around the world, including Carnegie of New York, and the Royal Albert Hall with the Dutch Radio Philharmonic Orchestra in 1973.

Tickets will be on sale at $15 each at House of Sound, Stevens and Son, Lloyd Center, Cristian Supply, and the Foundation Office, located at 3802 N.E. Union Avenue, Suite 206. Tickets will cost $17 at the door. For further information, call 249-1366.

Women's Day

The Annual Women's Day program at Mount Olivet Baptist Church will be held Sunday, July 20, 1986 at 11:00 a.m. The theme is "Christian Women and the Family". The guest speaker will be Mrs. Cornetta J. Smith. Mrs. Smith is a member of North East Lutheran Mission Church in Portland where her husband, Rev. Dayton H. Smith is lay pastor.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Prairie View A & M University with a BS degree in home economics education. She has also studied at Oregon and Washington State Universities. Her work experience includes assistant county home demonstration agent, teacher in the Portland Public Schools, home economist for Model Cities Child Care programs. She is currently program director of the Albina Ministerial Alliance family day & night care program.

Co-chairpersons for the Women's Day program, Rosie Tabb and Betty J. Stephens, announced that on the Saturday preceding Women's Day, July 19, 1986, the Women's Day luncheon will be held in the lower auditorium of Mt. Olivet at 116 N.E. Schuyler Street, 12:00 noon. A panel discussion will be held revolving around the Women's Day theme and will consist of speakers from New Hope, Maranatha and Mount Olivet Churches. Since the theme revolves around the family, the chairpersons invite men, women and children to attend their Women's Day program. In addition to her work experience, the guest speaker's christian background makes her eminently qualified to speak on the selected theme. Rev. John H. Jackson is minister at Mount Olivet Baptist Church.

Come And Celebrate With Us

Come and celebrate with us at the program and reception honoring Chaplain John and Vivian Parker in their eleventh year of directing Prison Ministries, Inc., Saturday, August 9, 1986, from 3:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Maranatha Church, 4222 N.E. 12th Ave., Portland, OR 97211.

ATTENTION

The Community of Portland and Bethel A.M.E. Church cordially invite all of you and your families to attend a free Banquet, honoring Bethel's pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Matthew A. Watley, at the church, Wednesday, July 30, 1986, at 6:00 p.m.

This is to be a semi-formal affair. There will be tremendous displays of talents. So come out and spend an enjoyable evening. Donations will be accepted.

Just Checking...

Dear Parents,
Good health is more than just good luck. Taking preventive action gives you more control over your child's health and well-being. Check out the following questions. Does your child need any of these services? If so, please call us for an appointment.

- Are your child's immunizations up to date?
- When your child is ill, do you have a place to go for treatment?
- Has your child had a recent checkup with vision and hearing tests?

Call 248-3535 and ask Sally for an appointment
