

After a 3-day weekend that had about 200,000 people riding MAX, exceeding the expectations of Tri-Met, the light rail is off and running. Except for a few minor delays and a downtown Portland accident with an automobile in which there were no injuries, MAX stayed pretty much on schedule. Commuters relaxed as they passed the bottle-neck of traffic on the Banfield.

PCC Offers Tax Class

People who want to become professional income tax preparers can enroll now for an evening class in the basics of tax preparation at Cascade Campus of Portland Community College, 705 N. Killingsworth Street.

The class will meet in Room 202 of Jackson Hall from 6 to 9 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays through the fall quarter which starts the week of September 22, and on three Saturdays...place and time to be announced.

Jeff Schuh, a tax consultant for Adept, Inc., an East Multnomah County firm, will be the instructor.

Students who complete the course successfully will be prepared to take a state licensing examination.

Tuition for the seven-credit class will be $164.50.

Two classes of "Income Tax Preparation: Basic", with identical course content, will be held on the PCC Sylvania Campus, 12000 S.W. 49th Ave. They will meet in Room A9 of the Social Science building, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., Tuesdays and Fridays, and Mondays and Thursdays, respectively. Three Saturday classes also have been scheduled.

"Income Tax Preparation: Advanced", a three-credit class, has been scheduled Mondays from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., in Room C2 of the Science Technology Building at Sylvania. Curriculum has been designed for students desiring license renewal.

Registration information may be obtained by calling 283-2541, Ext. 5316 or Ext. 5317.
