Amaze your friends! HEALTHY TRIVIA

- Blacks have twice the risk of high blood pressure as whites.
- You can't catch a cold or the flu at the North Pole in winter. The temperature there is so low that the germs can't survive.
- The custom of serving lemon with fish dates back to the Middle Ages. At that time, lemon was served with fish because it was believed that if you swallowed a fish bone, the lemon juice would dissolve it.
- The average waiting time in a doctor's office is 20 minutes, according to the American Medical Association.
- In ancient China, doctors were paid when their patients were kept well; Chinese doctors paid the patient if the patient lost his health. Each time a patient died, a special lantern was hung outside the doctor's house; too many lanterns would slow his practice.

How to make your seat belt lock.

If you've ever tugged on your seat belt to try to get it to lock, you might be interested to learn that today's belt systems are specially designed to lock only when your entire car comes to a sudden stop.

The belt apparatus contains a tiny pendulum attached to a locking mechanism; when your car stops suddenly, the pendulum swings forward, activating the locking device that keeps you from slamming into the windshield (and fellow passengers).

A simple test will show you how well your car-sensitive belt works. On a dry day, find an empty, level parking lot, drive at a very slow speed (5 mph is sufficient), and hit the brakes hard. Your belt will lock.

"Albina Extravaganza"

On Sunday afternoon, October 5, 1986, beginning at 3:00 p.m. the Albina Council for Historic Preservation and Tourism will kick off its gala "Albina Extravaganza" at Peninsula Park in North Portland. The event will activate Albina's 100th Centennial Celebration by announcing the winner of the office of Honorary Mayor of Albina. This will be your chance to see if Sam Brooks or Precious Mother Justice will launch a whole new career in their declining years. Will Mayor Clark have some concerns for his future in office after Albina's new Mayor takes office?

The day's events will include rides in a Hot Air Balloon, courtesy of Northwest Natural Gas Co., Horse-drawn carriage rides through the park and an Ethnic Food Fair in the Community Center Building, with a special appearance by Liverpool Liz, former owner of the road house and race track that once graced the grounds of the current Peninsula Park.

Dancing will begin at 7:00 p.m. with music provided by Portland's own "Randy Smith and the Flirt Band." Old fashioned games and prizes for children will take place from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Tickets for this tax deductible event are $10.00 per person with all proceeds going to the Council for Historic Preservation and Tourism, a subcommittee of the N/E. Business Boosters, and may be purchased at Stevens and Sons Jewelers in the Lloyd Center, C.C. Justice Realty Co., on North Interstate Ave. and Portland Blvd. or at the John Palmer House.
