

Free Fall Fun October 26 - 1 to 4 pm

Enjoy the Hoyt Arboretum in its full fall color when the Hoyt Arboretum Friends Foundation offers an afternoon of music, fun, and activities. Bring a picnic lunch and enjoy fresh apple cider and music at the Picnic Shelter. Follow that up with a leisurely walk on the Fall Color Trail and participate in many of the activities set up along the trail. An apple cider press will be available all afternoon for your use. Bring your own apples. Come join us for this afternoon of free fall fun. ALTERNATE RAIN DATE: November 2nd.

Free Day at OMSI

Pack up the kids, the family, your friends, (why not the whole neighborhood!) and come up to OMSI October 31st. Why October 31st? Because we're throwing open the doors to say thank you in a very "free" way! As a special thank you to the city of Portland for a $25,000 grant and to the people of Oregon who have supported and helped make our summer exhibit one of prehistoric proportions; we will be open free from 1 to 8 p.m. on Friday, October 31st.

For more information, call OMSI at 222-2828.

Community Of Black Catholics Celebrate Mass With Archbishop William Levada

The Black Catholic community of Portland invites all to a mass and reception welcoming newly installed Archbishop William Levada. The mass will be celebrated Sunday, October 19th, 1986, at 2:00 p.m. and will be hosted by the Knights and Ladies of St. Peter Claver, and the Black Lay Caucus. The mass will be held at Immaculate Heart Church, 2926 N. Williams Avenue and the reception will follow the mass at Immaculate Heart Hall.

There will be an offering of canned food gifts as well as a collection for the poor of the inner-city during the mass. All children who plan to attend this special celebration should bring a can of food to offer. The mass will also involve the participation of the choirs of St. Andrews, Holy Redeemer, and Immaculate Heart parishes. For more information about this celebration, please contact Fr. Charles Lienert, 287-3724, Fr. Gary Pometta, 285-4539, and Fr. James Coleman, 281-4429.
