Story-Telling Workshop

Professional storyteller Traci Tree will present a daylong workshop Thursday, November 6, on the art of story telling at Cascade Campus of Portland Community College, 705 N. Killingsworth St.

The workshop, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., will be in Room B1 of Terrell Hall. Cost for the one-credit session is $22.50.

Participants will do exercises in creativity, read and create stories and learn about props. Demonstrations by Tree will also be featured. In addition to working as a storyteller, Tree is pursuing a bachelor's degree in education from Portland State University.

Advanced registration is encouraged. Further information is available at 283-2541, Ext. 5253.

Jazz Flutists' Masterclass & Recital

Stephen Kujala Masterclass and Recital - Lincoln Hall, Room 75, Portland State University. Jazz flutist and composer Stephen Kujala will present a masterclass and short recital Saturday, November 1, at 2 p.m. sponsored by the Greater Portland Flute Society, Portland Jazz Society, and Meet the Composer. Those with flutes are invited to bring them for audience participation. Tickets will be available at the door; $6. General Admission, $3. GPF members, Jazz Society members, and senior citizens.

Al Rivers and the "Ink Spots" in Concert

Al Rivers and His World Famous "Ink Spots" will provide an evening of music and nostalgia with their old hits from the '40s and '50s on Saturday, November 8, at 8:00 p.m., in the Reed Commons on the Reed College campus. Tickets are $7.50 in advance at G.I. Joe's, or $8 at the door. The event is sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Board, a student organization.

Mr. Rivers is the only surviving member of the original "Ink Spots": he joined the group in 1949, and traveled and performed with them for nearly ten years. His new "Ink Spots" includes a trio of musicians and four male vocalists.

At the Movies

(rated on a scale of 1-10)

Jumpin' Jack Flash — R

Whoopi Goldberg stars in an adventure/comedy about a computer operator working in a New York bank's overseas exchange department who stumbles across a British agent trapped behind the iron curtain. The film is full of laughs and adventure. However, Whoopi lets me down with her seemingly non-stop profanity throughout the film. It's a poor example of a Black woman, especially after her role in "The Color Purple." "Jumpin' Jack Flash" leaves a lot to be desired, especially with the extremely weak ending. 6

Tough Guys — R

Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas are two great actors in this not-so-great film. Don't get me wrong, it is a good film about two bank robbers released from prison after 30 years and trying to fit into a whole new world. After a few weeks, they return to their old life of crime and decide to go out with a bang. In reality, this film only manages a poof, and I was really disappointed in seeing two of my favorite actors in a has been movie. 5

The Color of Money — R

I enjoyed this film even though it was poorly written. With Tom Cruise and Paul Newman acting, it could have been much, much better than it was. It's about the return of Fast Eddie to the hard hustling pool circuit doing his thing through a young protege. They take off to Atlantic City to attend a world class 9-ball tournament, stopping at every hustle hall along the way. Vince (Tom Cruise) learns about the world of hard hustling and shines like new money so much that his teacher Fast Eddie (Paul Newman) hungers for the glory of the old days. An entertaining film. 6 1/2

Interested individuals are invited to deliver themselves to Loaves & Fishes' Seventh Annual Dinner/Dance on November 14, 1986 at 7 o'clock in the evening, the Masonic Temple Sunken Ballroom, 119 S.W. Park.

On the docket for the evening's activities are dining (gourmet Meals On Wheels delivered to guests at their tables) and dancing to the Woody Hite Big Band.

A highlight of the evening is the drawing of a lucky winner for a 7 day, 6 night everything-included trip to beautiful Honolulu, Hawaii.

Tickets for the event can be delivered for $50 per person. For information about ticket purchase and prize drawing, call 777-2424.

Zoo Plans Halloween Party For Kids

The Washington Park Zoo's annual PUMPKIN PARTY will be held on Sunday, Oct. 26, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Halloween event, for children three through eleven, is free with zoo admission. Partygoers are asked to wear regular clothing; no costumes will be permitted inside the zoo...they could frighten the animals.

Pumpkin Party festivities include trick and treating, storytelling, pumpkin decorating and a host of things to do in the dentists' corner at the Children's Zoo. Special maps will guide youngsters to the various activities.

At the trick and treat stations kids must do a trick...walk like a penguin, howl like a wolf, fish like a bear...to get a treat. The treats are nutritious and sugar free.

Four days after the first American atomic bomb was detonated on Bikini Atoll in the Pacific, the first bikini swim suit was modeled in Paris. The name was to express the idea of the "ultimate."
