

In Concert: Ernestine Buntyn Dillard

We will praise the Lord, as we come to the close of our Conference Claims Drive with a Concert featuring Ernestine Buntyn Dillard. You will feel the Holy Spirit as she lifts up the Glory of God in Song. Please come and praise the Lord next Sunday, November 30, 1986 - 3:30 p.m. at the Allen Temple C.M.E. Church. Sis. Nancy Powell, General Chairperson - Conference Claims Rally. This anointed soprano presents a varied and delightful program for any gathering. Her repertoire includes a wide range of selections: anthems, spirituals, hymns, modern and traditional gospel songs, contemporary praise and inspirational songs.

Mrs. Dillard is a unique musician. Her music ministry, empowered by the Holy Spirit, allows her to be carried along in a stream of beauty. She performs for the Glory of God and brings her audience into His power-filled presence. Mrs. Dillard lifts her audience to new heights and a keen awareness of God's praise.

The wife of Reverend Loomus Dillard, Pastor of Curry Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in Seattle, WA, and the mother of Gale, Charles, Tonnie, and Timothy, Mrs. Dillard knows how to minister to youthful and mature audiences. She is well known as guest soloist at revivals, conferences, conventions and community celebrations across the country.

First Local Black-Owned Real Estate Company Owner, H.C. Plummer, Dies

Herman Charles Plummer was born January 12, 1916, in Kansas City, Kansas. He was the sixth child of eight born to Ulysses Grant and Maude Plummer. He attended Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri where he received a BA Degree in Business Administration. He served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II where he was a licensed pilot.

"H.C." as he became known to his friends and associates, was always of an independent spirit and thus was committed to become self-employed. He moved to Portland, Oregon in 1948. He opened Portland's first black-owned and operated real estate company, known as H.C. Plummer & Company, Inc. He assisted and encouraged many blacks to pursuing a career in real estate and insurance. His knowledge and willingness to assist buyers and sellers alike in any area of his expertise is far reaching. For several years he served as Project Manager of the Portland Development Commission.

In addition to his involvements in his real estate and insurance business, he spent many hours with civic and community service projects. To name a few; he served on the board of directors of the Urban League of Portland and the N.A.A.C.P., President of the N.W. Bridge Association, past President of the Challengers Bridge Club, past President of the Royal Esquire Club, he held several offices in Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity and he was a former candidate for state representative.

He departed this life Friday, November 21, 1986 at 6:55 p.m. He will be lovingly remembered by his wife, Jeannette; sons Craig, Paul and Ronald Stewart, sister Lela Watson, and brother Louis H. Plummer both of Kansas City, Kansas, several grandchildren, nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral service was held at 12:30 PM Wednesday, November 26, 1986, at the Allen Temple C.M.E. Church. Interment was in Willamette National Cemetery.

"My particular concerns are human rights issues/violations, status of the church and repression..." stated Macceo Pettis, Co-Chair of the Oregon Rainbow Coalition, at a press conference before leaving Portland to participate in a U.S.-El Salvador Conference held in El Salvador. The theme of the conference is "In Search of Peace". Among the Oregon delegates to the conference are (L-R) Martin Lahr Pettis, Rev. Philip Harder and Jamie Partridge.
