Portland Community College is offering an 11-week winter term class designed to improve parent/teenager relationships.

Effective Parenting of Teens will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday evenings, starting January 5, in Room 227 of Grant High School, 2245 N.E. 36th Ave.

The class will emphasize understanding of adolescent development and communication and problem-solving skills, according to Karen McCune, parent education coordinator for the PCC Home Economics Department.

Parents will learn and practice new techniques to develop responsible and independent behavior in their teenagers. The parents also will be able to discuss with other parents such issues as parent burn-out, self esteem for parents and being a parent in the 1980s.

Tuition is $23.50.

Further information is available from McCune at 244-6111, Ext. 4218.

DMV Office Open In Beaverton

A temporary Motor Vehicles Division office will open in Beaverton Jan. 13, DMV Administrator David P. Moomaw has announced.

The office will be located at 14355 S.W. Allen Blvd., across the street from the DMV office closed by an arson fire Dec. 17.

The temporary office will offer all DMV services, including behind the wheel driver testing. Until the office is opened, drive tests for Beaverton-area customers will continue to be scheduled at the Hillsboro, Lake Oswego, Forest Grove and Sherwood offices by appointment only. Appointments can be made by calling 771-EXAM. Saturday behind the wheel drive tests may be scheduled at the East Portland drive test center, 8710 S.E. Powell Blvd., by calling the same number.

Moomaw said that the Beaverton office will be in the temporary site for at least 90 days.

The temporary office is located in Building F of the Beaverton Commons, just west of the Mini-Mart, 4218.
