

King's Son to Speak at Lewis and Clark

Martin Luther King III will speak at Lewis and Clark College's Agnes Flanagan Chapel at 3 p.m. Friday, Jan. 23. King, the son of slain civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr., will speak on: "Mainstreaming Outsiders: Increasing Educational Opportunities."

The free lecture is sponsored by the Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship Fund, the Northwestern School of Law of Lewis and Clark College Alumni Association, the Minority Law Student Association, campus ministries, Associated Students of Lewis and Clark Education Programs and the College's lectures and concerts committee.

King's father, the winner of a Nobel Prize for his work in leading the civil rights movement in the United States in the 1960s, was assassinated in Memphis, Tenn., in 1968. King also will speak at the Martin Luther King School in Northeast Portland and at Portland State University.

For more information, contact Tony Kneidek, Office of Public Information, Lewis and Clark College, 293-2777.

Neighborhood Restaurant Holds "Get Acquainted Dinners"

Hiram's Shrimp Shop, a new neighborhood restaurant in Union Square, will hold "Get Acquainted Dinners" in January. The first dinner will be held on Monday, January 19 in honor of Martin Luther King's birthday. Neighborhood, religious and business leaders will be invited to become acquainted with Hiram's and enjoy free gumbo with their dinner.

Hiram's owner, Abdul Hasan, would like neighborhood leaders to consider Hiram's for their meetings. He feels there is a need for a convenient neighborhood meeting place.

In addition to the "Get Acquainted Dinners", Hiram's will invite neighborhood residents to a Grand Opening celebration in February.

Hiram's opened in December at Union Square, 3034 N.E. Union. The family oriented restaurant specializes in seafood, gumbo and barbecued beef and chicken.

"Keep Living the Dream: A Tribute to Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr."

Please accept this as a special invitation to attend the Second Annual Program "Keep Living The Dream: A Tribute to Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr." at 1:00 p.m., Monday, January 19, 1987, at the Whitaker Middle School Auditorium.

This program will include presentations by Portland area students and a number of prominent citizens all reflecting on "The Dream". As a performing arts feature, a mass choir, sculpted from local talent, will perform gospel music classics under the direction of pianist/composer Janice Scroggins, Danny Osborn, and Ken Berry. The entire program will be broadcast live over radio station KBOO (90.7 FM) and video taped for later broadcast on Rogers Cable Television. So mark your calendar for Monday, January 19th, from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Whitaker Middle School for "Keep Living The Dream: A Tribute to Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr."

MARTIN LUTHER King, Jr., Celebration Set

A communitywide celebration of the nation's second observance of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Holiday is scheduled January 15-20 in Eugene.

A rededication of Martin Luther King Park, located at 10th and Grant in Eugene, will kick off the celebration. The rededication is scheduled from 4 to 4:45 p.m. on Thursday, January 15. In addition, during the six-day event, nationally recognized speakers will make presentations and local efforts to further human rights will be acknowledged.

These and other special events celebrating the life and work of the late Martin Luther King, Jr., will occur at different sites in the community.

The free events are being coordinated by the Eugene Martin Luther King, Jr., Celebration Task Force. The local celebration shares this year's theme of the federal holiday commission, "Let Freedom Ring." The task force has designed events to bring together members of the local community "to demonstrate interdependence, stressing similarities while recognizing differences," according to member Jayne Mickles.

For more information about activities, contact Nancy Waggoner at the City of Eugene, Intergovernmental Relations, 687-5177. OR-task force member Jayne Mickles, 683-2790 or 399-3200 (Salem).

Portland Schools Spearhead King Birthday Observances

Three Portland Public Schools during the next two weeks spearhead local and national observances of the birthday of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

King Primary School, named for the slain civil rights leader, holds its 16th-annual commemorative assembly next Thursday (Jan. 15) in the school cafeteria at 4906 N.E. Sixth Ave.

Scheduled from 1-2:15 p.m., the King School observance features a school and community assembly at which students and community leaders will offer songs, readings, plays and candlelighting ceremony.

Special invited guests are Oregon Gov. Neil Goldschmidt, Portland Mayor Bud Clark, Portland School District Supt. Matthew Prophet and Oregon Rep. Margaret Carter (D-18th District).

Vancouver, Wash.'s King Elementary School will send a delegation of 30 students and present songs and readings.

Vernon Primary School will hold grade-level student assemblies from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. next Thursday (Jan. 15), followed by a schoolwide student launching of commemorative balloons from the campus at 2044 N.E. Killingsworth St.

Whitaker Middle School on Jan. 19 hosts its second-annual "Keep Living the Dream: A Tribute to the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr."

Scheduled at 1 p.m., the public program in the school auditorium at 5700 N.E. 39th Ave. will include presentations by students and community leaders.

The Whitaker program, broadcast live on Radio Station KBOO, also will feature a community choir performing gospel music classics.

Martin Luther King Day, an official state and national holiday, will be observed Jan. 19. Portland Public Schools and offices will be closed.

For further information, please contact LaVerne Davis, King School program coordinator, 280-6155; Betsy Geddes, Vernon principal, 284-2157 or Ken Berry, Whitaker School program director, 280-5140.

A Dream Remembered!

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Birthday Observed January 19, 1987

Safeway salutes Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Born 1929 - Died 1968, a Baptist Minister who led the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950's and 60's which led to an end of racial segregation. He won the prestigious Nobel Peace Prize in 1964 for his non-violent protest movement.

We at Safeway are committed to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr's dream of equal opportunities for all people...It is a fundamental policy of our company to provide equal opportunity employment, management training and advancement to all of our employees without regards to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age or physical handicap. We are truly proud to be a part of everyone's life.

Equal Opportunity Employer