

Portland Fair Share To Meet With Legislators

The Portland Chapter of Oregon Fair Share will be holding its 1987 Legislative Breakfast on Saturday, January 17 at 9:30 am at Original Richard's Restaurant on 4534 SE McLoughlin Blvd. At this event Fair Share members will have the opportunity to present their legislative issue concerns to the Portland legislative delegation. Issues including health care, taxes, and insurance reform will be discussed.

Following Fair Share issue presentations, legislators will have the opportunity to comment and share their thoughts on how they see the '87 session progressing. Denise Gustafson, president of Oregon Fair Share, states that, "The Legislative Breakfast marks the beginning of our involvement in what we hope will be our most successful legislative session yet."

Sunset High School to Honor Martin Luther King Jr.

Sunset High School will hold an assembly on January 19, 1987, to honor the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. It marks the first time the school has honored the civil rights leader since his death.

"Sunset has never done anything for him (Dr. King)," says Sunset Senior Erik Iverson, who is one of the students involved in planning the assembly. "I just thought we should do something this year."

"When Dr. King died, most of the schools in Oregon held some kind of observance . . . Sunset held a fashion show," said Sunset High School senior Chuck Currie. "It's time that Sunset and the other Beaverton schools take part in remembering his life, and The Civil Rights Movement."

The assembly will take the form of a slide show, showing pictures of black art, civil rights photos from the 1960's, and music from different artists of the time. Excerpts from Dr. King's, "I Have a Dream" speech will be heard, along with speeches on civil rights from President John F. Kennedy, and Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

Staff advisors include: Don Schuman, Marcie Geary, and Greg Hall.

. . . One day in Alabama, that little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers—I have a dream today!

Dr. Martin Luther King

He was a Negro, but with a soul as pure as the white snow. He was killed by whites with black souls.

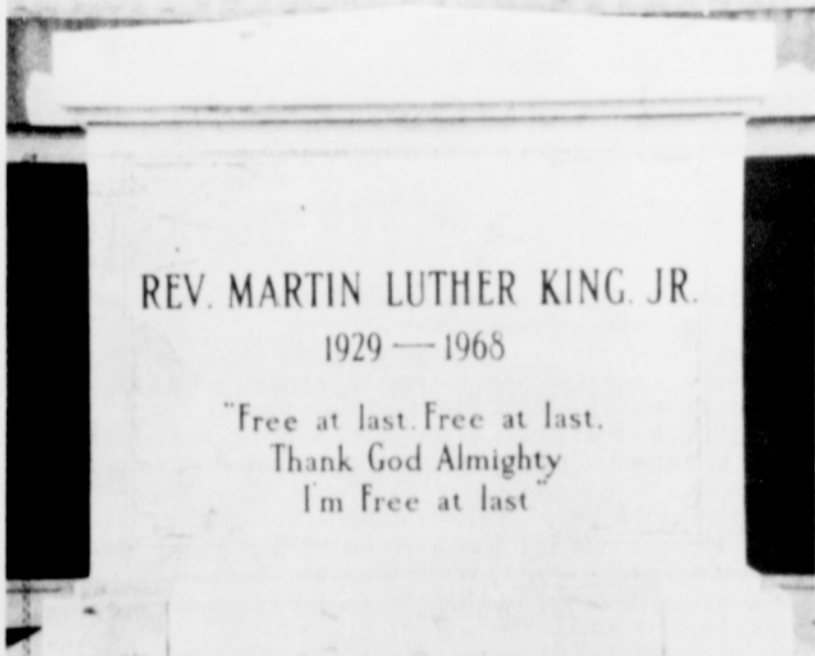

When I received this news that same bullet entered me. That bullet that killed him, but by that bullet I was reborn, and I was reborn a Negro.

—Yevgeny Yevtushenko, U.S.S.R.

Mail to be Collected and Processed on Holiday

Portland Field Division General Manager/Postmaster Dallas Keck announced today that post offices will be closed Monday, January 19, 1987, in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. There will be no window service or carrier deliveries; however, Express Mail and Special Delivery services will be provided.
