Stop - Look - Read
 The New Partnership in Mental Health: Families, Professionals and the Patient is a workshop sponsored by Delaunay Mental Health Center on February 12, 13, 1987. The first day is a survival skills workshop for families in which current understandings of schizophrenia and its treatment are presented. Professionals will attend both days for a workshop of psychoeducational approaches to working with families. The workshop leader is Jan Larson, MSW, Director, Family Education and Support Program, the Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kansas. For registration information, call Delaunay Mental Health Center, 285 9871. Delaunay is pleased to offer this workshop during its 25th year of serving the community.

Free Clinic
 A free diabetes screening clinic is being offered at Meridian Park Hospital, Tualatin. The clinic will be open from 9-9:30 a.m. on Monday, March 2. Pre-registration is required. For additional information, contact the community education office at the hospital, 692-2656.

Free Community Forum on Impotence
 A free forum, "Impotence: You Don't Have to Live with It," will be presented in January by Dr. Theodore Lehman at Emanuel Hospital & Health Center. This community forum will be presented from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, January 27 at Emanuel in Room 1075. "Impotence is not a disease of old men. People have begun talking because now help is available," explains Dr. Lehman. "Impotence is more of a problem than once thought," he says. Approximately 1 in 10 or 24,000 men in Portland area suffer from impotence. For more information and pre-registration, call 280-4284.
