Portland Superintendent Joins Educators for National Honors

Matthew W. Prophet, Jr., superintendent of Portland Public Schools, joins 99 other North American school managers honored this year by "Executive Educator" magazine.

The February issue of the Virginia-based publication for school professionals applauds the educators for "excellent leadership and outstanding professional achievements" in a blue-ribbon listing similar to the Fortune 500 and Forbes 400 for business and industry.

Chosen from 800 nominees in the United States and Canada by a 10-member panel of peers in public and higher education, the honorees were judged by 11-point criteria ranging from competence to anticipation and analysis of emerging problems.

Honorees included 80 superintendents of public school districts with enrollments ranging from 1,050 (Cut Bank, Mont.) to 590,000 (Los Angeles, Calif.), 15 principals, two central administrators, two college professors of education and one junior college president.

Prophet, superintendent of the Portland School District since 1982, is credited with spearheading dramatic rises in student achievement and with focusing on long-range planning and sound fiscal management.

Tenth Annual Debutante Cotillion

The Portland Chapter of Links, Inc., is preparing for the Tenth Annual Debutante Cotillion. In an effort to spotlight young ladies in Portland and surrounding area high schools who through their grades and activities are exhibiting outstanding qualities of leadership and achievement, the Portland Chapter will present twelve senior girls to the Portland community.

The formal ball will be held Sunday, February 15, 1987, at the Red Lion Hotel in Lloyd Center from 8:00 P.M. until 1:00 A.M.

In the ten years of this event, we have worked with more than two hundred girls and boys preparing them for this event. In an effort to encourage and support the outstanding work of these students and recognize the contributions they are making to their community, we sponsor an elegant affair to honor them and their parents. The support of schools and other organizations allows us to say congratulations for a job well done. Scholarships will be given to those girls with high G.P.A.'s and we will also give a community service award to the girl who has made extensive contributions through community service.

Practices are being held each Sunday from 3:00 to 5:00 PM at the Ainsworth Church of Christ at 30th and Northeast Ainsworth. We would welcome more information, please contact the Chairwoman, Mrs. Ernest Hartzog at 249-2855 or Mrs. Ben Talley, Co-Chairwoman at 280-5724.

Women's History Month

The month of March has been designated as 'International Women's History Month' and in conjunction, the White Gallery will be presenting "Women Photographers," February 9 through March 20, 1987. The reception for the artists will be Thursday, March 5, 5-7 p.m., in the White Gallery, Smith Memorial Center, Portland State University.

This show is the first of an annual exhibit reflecting the attitudes of Portland area women artists. This is an invitational exhibit co-sponsored by the Women's Union of Portland State University.

For more information, contact Valerie Ross, Director, or Lonnie Feather, Gallery Asst., 229-4452, Noon - 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

1987 Volunteer Bureau Award Nominations

The Volunteer Bureau will present the Carnation Community Service Award to six outstanding volunteers or service groups on April 7, 1987 at a luncheon at the Portland Red Lion. The deadline for nominations is February 27, 1987.

The awards are sponsored by Carnation Company, International Paper Company Foundation and Standard Insurance Company.

Community service organizations in Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington Counties may obtain nomination forms by calling The Volunteer Bureau at 222-1355.

A Lesson On Babysitting Safety

St. Vincent Hospital and Medical Center offers a four-session babysitting and safety class to children age 11 and older on Tuesday, Feb. 10 and 17, and Thursday, Feb. 12 and 19, from 4 to 6 p.m. at the hospital's Health and Lifestyle Center, 11640 SW Parkway.

The $12 class will teach basic first aid, ways to handle emergencies and tips on child-proofing the home. Participants are encouraged to bring a doll if possible.

Upon completion of the course, certificates from the American Red Cross will be issued to class members.

To register, persons may come to St. Vincent Hospital's Health and Lifestyle Center weekdays, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., or mail in a registration form and the class fee.

For more information, contact: Gail Harris, Health and Lifestyle Center, Phone: 626-0890.

PCC and Private Industry Council Sponsor Seminar

The Small Business Development Center of Portland Community College and the Portland Private Industry Council are sponsoring a February 13 seminar on recruiting and interviewing personnel.

The session, from 7:30 to 9 a.m., will be held at the PIC offices, 520 S.W. Fifth Ave., Suite 400.

Topics to be covered include effective recruiting, hiring the best candidate and interviewing.

The seminar will be free, but preregistration is required by contacting Marvin Welt, Portland PIC, 241-46000.
